To Whom it May Concern:

Please fill out all the paperwork in BLACK or BLUE ink and mail back with copies of your insurance cards and photo I.D. (FRONT and BACK).

Once all the paperwork is received, we will call you and schedule your procedure. If we DO NOT receive all the requested information, it will delay your process of being scheduled.

Please DO NOT mail back or throw away the prep instruction sheet. You will need the instructions to prepare for the colonoscopy.

It is your responsibility to know your insurance benefits.

Thank you,

Dr. Deshmukh, Dr. Adeyemo & Dr. Pemmaraju's office staff

Office policies:

We are open Monday - Friday 8am-4pm. Our office is closed for 1 hour for lunch and that time varies daily. Office hours and appointments vary for each surgeon.

Please respect our office staff. Any type of abuse against our office staff will not be tolerated and may result in removal from the building and or termination of the practice.

Telephone calls are handled by our receptionists who are trained to ask and answer pertinent questions, and your cooperation will greatly speed up the process. They will either answer your questions, take a message, or make an appointment when deemed necessary. If you reach our voicemail, please leave a message and your call will be returned within one (1) business day. If you do not leave a message, we do not know that you called. Leaving a message will always be in your best interest.

Please DO NOT call the physicians for NON-EMERGENT MATTERS (Prescription refills, lab or test results, making an appointment, scheduling surgery, etc. THESE ARE NOT EMERGENT). If you call for NON-EMERGENT MATTERS, they will tell you to call the office.

Appointments can be made by calling our office during normal business hours. Please arrive 10 – 15 minutes before your scheduled appointment time to fill out new patient paperwork. Updating paperwork may be required at your appointment. Please contact us in advance if you are unable to make an appointment or may be late.

As a surgical practice, emergency situations arise that may result in the physician being called away. As a result, your appointment may need to be rescheduled or the physician running late. During these times, we appreciate your patience and understanding.

Medical records:

Medical records may be obtained, and the request can be processed if you have a signed medical record release form. Please allow up to 5-7 days for processing. There is no charge to send records to other physicians. There is a $15 charge to request personal medical records.

Prescriptions:

Prescriptions are renewed during normal office hours. In some instances, we may require that the patient be seen in our office prior to medication renewal. Please note, it may take 48 to 72 hours to process the prescription refills.

Financial Policy:

All Specialist office visit copays are due at the time of service. Please do not argue with the staff about your specialist copay. Your policy is between you and your Insurance Company.

$45 charge for last minute cancellation/no show charge for colonoscopies or surgical procedures.

There is a $25 charge for Disability/FMLA paperwork (allow 5-7 day turnaround for forms to be completed.) $50 Charge For expedited Disability/FMLA paperwork to be filled out within 24 hours or request. There is a $15 charge for Medical Records.

We accept cash, checks, Visa, MasterCard, and Discover. Please contact our billing office at 734-722-1063 if you should have any financial questions or concerns.

I have read and understand the office policies indicated above.

HIPAA NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can obtain access to this information. Please review this document carefully.

Your Rights

Get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record.

- You can ask to see or have an electronic or paper copy of your medical record and other health information we have about you. Please talk to one of our staff members.
- We will provide a copy or a summary of your health information, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.

Ask us to correct your medical record.

- You can ask us to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete. Please talk to one of our staff members.
- We may refuse your request, but we'll tell you in writing within 60 days.

Request confidential communications.

- You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address.
- We will approve all reasonable requests.

Ask us to limit what we use or share.

- You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations. We are not required to agree to your request, and we may deny it if it would affect your care.
- If you pay for a service or health care item out of pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer. We will approve your request unless a law requires us to share that information.

Obtain a list of those with whom we've shared information.

- You can request a list (accounting) of the times we've shared your health information for 6 years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why.
- We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We'll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.

Obtain a copy of this privacy notice.

- You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.

Choose someone to act for you.

- If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.
- We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.

File a complaint if you feel your rights have been violated. Please contact our Privacy Official at 734-722-1063.

- You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Ave, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 877-696-6775, or by visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints.
- We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

Your Choices

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you don't have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to one of our staff members. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:

- Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in your care.
- Share information in a disaster relief situation.
- Include your information in a hospital directory.

If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.

In these cases, we never share your information unless you give us written permission:

- Marketing purposes.
- Sale of your information.
- Most sharing of psychotherapy notes.

How do we typically use or share your health information?

We typically use or share your health information in the following ways:

- Treat you. We can use your health information and share it with other professionals who are treating you.
- Run our organization. We can use and share your health information to run our practice, improve your care, and contact you when necessary.
- Bill for your services. We can use and share your health information to bill and receive payment from health plans or other entities.

How else can we use or share your health information?

- We are allowed or required to share your information in other ways – usually in ways that contribute to the public good, such as public health and research. We have to meet many conditions in the law before we can share your information for these purposes.

For more information see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers.

Help with public health and safety issues.

We can share health information about you for certain situations such as:

- Preventing disease.
- Helping with product recalls.
- Preventing or reducing a serious threat to anyone's health or safety.

Do research. We can use or share your information for health research.

Comply with the law.

-We will share information about you if state or federal laws require it, including with the Department of Health and Human Services if they want to see that we're complying with federal privacy laws.

Respond to organ and tissue donation requests. We can share health information about you with organ procurement organizations.

Work with a medical examiner or funeral director. We can share health information with a coroner, medical examiner, and/or funeral director when an individual dies.

Address worker's compensation, law enforcement, and other government requests. We can use or share health information about you:

- For worker's compensation claims.
- For law enforcement purposes or with a law enforcement official.
- With health oversight agencies for activities authorized by law.
- For special government functions such as military, national security, and presidential protective services.

Respond to lawsuits and legal actions. We can share health information about you in response to a court or administrative order, or in response to a subpoena.

Our Responsibilities

- We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information.
- We will let you know promptly if a breach occurs that may have compromised the privacy or security of your information.
- We must follow the duties and privacy practices described in this notice and give you a copy of it.
- We will not use or share your information other than as described here unless you tell us we can in writing. If you tell us we can, you may change your mind at any time. Let us know in writing if you change your mind.

For more information see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/noticepp.html.

Changes to the Terms of this Notice. We can change the terms of this notice, and the changes will apply to all information we have about you. The new notice will be available upon request, in our office, and on our website.

Contact our office at 734-722-1063 at any time with questions or concerns.

Authorization and Agreements of Medical Treatment
Insurance Benefits and Financial Responsibility

CONSENT FOR EXAMINATION: I understand that medical treatment may be necessary for the patient by Ganesh Deshmukh, MD or Adewunmi Adeyemo, MD, or Vishnu Pemmaraju, MD. or their associates or assistants. I understand the examination procedures will be explained to me and I shall consent to the partial or complete examination. I understand that the examination results will be provided to me with recommendations. The responsibility for any follow up examinations to check abnormalities found and treated lies with me and not my physician, thereby releasing my examiner from all responsibility in connection with this examination.

CONSENT FOR TREATMENT: I understand that medical treatment is necessary for the patient by Ganesh Deshmukh, MD, Adewunmi Adeyemo, MD, or Vishnu Pemmaraju, MD or their associates or assistants. I hereby consent to and authorize the administration of all diagnostic and therapeutic treatment that may be considered advisable or necessary in the judgment of the physician. No guarantee or assurance has been given to anyone as to the results that may be obtained by such treatments.

- 1. All co-payments are due at time of service. We accept cash, check, Visa, Mastercard, Discover and Care Credit.
- 2. All balances must be paid prior to any office visits or surgeries being scheduled.
- 3. Our office will submit claims to your insurance company as a service to you. It is important that you know what your insurance plan covers. Services not covered by your insurance company are your responsibility.
- 4. Your doctor is here to manage your medical care. The Physicians are not experts on insurance and cannot be aware of all financial arrangements. Please discuss insurance problems and financial difficulties with the billing department. We will gladly work with you to make payment arrangements. Accounts over 90 days past due may be referred to a collection agency.

I have read the above Acknowledgment and Agreements and fully understand the same.
