ARE YOU A FORESTRY LANDOWNER?

Whether you have 5 or 2,000 acres, join us for an informative, hands-on tour to look at various forestry management practices.

Don't miss this great opportunity to network with other forestry landowners and learn from our team of forestry and natural resource professionals to improve the overall health of your forestland and leave with a better understanding of:

- The benefits of forest soils
- Forest management treatment
- Risks of uncontrolled noxious weeds
- Programs available to private landowners
- Wildfire risk reduction
- Assess individual forestry needs

For program questions contact:
John Lillehaug, (208) 630-4076 or
