"Come and Rest"

God saw you were getting weary,
So He did what He thought was best.
He came and stood beside you,
And whispered,
"Come and Rest."
You wished no one a fond farewell
Or even said good-bye.
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.
When God called you to come and rest,
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you
The day God took you home.

Obituary

Waverly Maurice Harris, son of the late Maurice and Eunice Catharine Harris, was born September 2, 1951 in Reidsville, NC. He departed this life at Novant Health-Forsyth Medical Center on April 10, 2022.

He graduated from the historic Booker T. Washington High School in Reidsville, NC.

After graduating, he served honorably in the United States Army, achieving the rank of Sergeant. For his distinguished service, he received the National Defense Service Medal, Vietnam Service Medal, Good Conduct Medal, Expert Badge M-16 and Vietnam Campaign Medal.

Professionally, he was an owner-operator long distance truck driver. Driving trucks was his passion. For 36 years it provided him opportunities to travel throughout the United States. When he was not "on the road", he found joy in grooming and landscaping his yard.

In addition to his parents, his sister, Willie Jean Wright, preceded him in death.

Loving memories will be cherished by his beloved wife, Delores W. Harris; two sons: Desmond (Cherith) Harris of Greenwood, SC and Demond (LaShanda) Harris of Moore, SC.; one daughter, Tonya Wharton of Reidsville, NC; grandchildren: Jamaika, Ethan, Jayden, Lauren and Olivia Harris; sisters: Eunice (Charlie) Huff of Reidsville, NC, Ira (Marquis) Jessup of Kernersville, NC and Cordelia (Ignatius) Uche of Greensboro, NC; brothers: Michael (Pat) Harris, Calvin (Diane) Harris and Kwan Harris of Reidsville, NC; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins; and other relatives and friends.

Wind Beneath My Wings

*Did you ever know that you're my hero?
You're everything I wish I could be
I could fly higher than an eagle
For you are the wind beneath my wings*
