

The Broken Chain

We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.

And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

Obituary

John Williams Jones Sr., known to some as “Willie” or “Boss Hog”, was born on December 25, 1934 to the late John Henry and Elzada Rice Jones in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. He passed away on Tuesday March 4, 2025.

He was educated in the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County School System. With an entrepreneurial spirit, he was self-employed. John’s favorite hobby was to listen to music especially anything by James Brown and to participate in family gatherings. John’s walk of faith was non-denominational.

He was married to Jessie A. Stitt for over 50 years until her passing. He was also preceded in death by his daughter, Brenda Jean Jones Sanders; son-in-law, Sylvester “Vest” Bitting; grandson, Sylvester Ronald Bitting; sisters, Thelma (Richard) Osia, and Lucinda LeGree; brothers, Benny Lee, Robert and Eddie Jones.

John leaves behind to cherish wonderful memories, his children, Ruby Bitting, Sandra Jones, Cynthia (Jesse Gallman), John Williams Jones Jr.; siblings, Mary (Julius) Phillips of Winston-Salem, NC, Louella Nimrod, Betty Jones, Allen (Joyce) Jones and Louella Nimrod of Houston, Texas.

Also remaining to celebrate his life are a host of grand-children, nieces, nephews, friends and extended family who will continue to cherish his memory.
