

LUNAR VIBRATIONS

"In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you." John 14:12

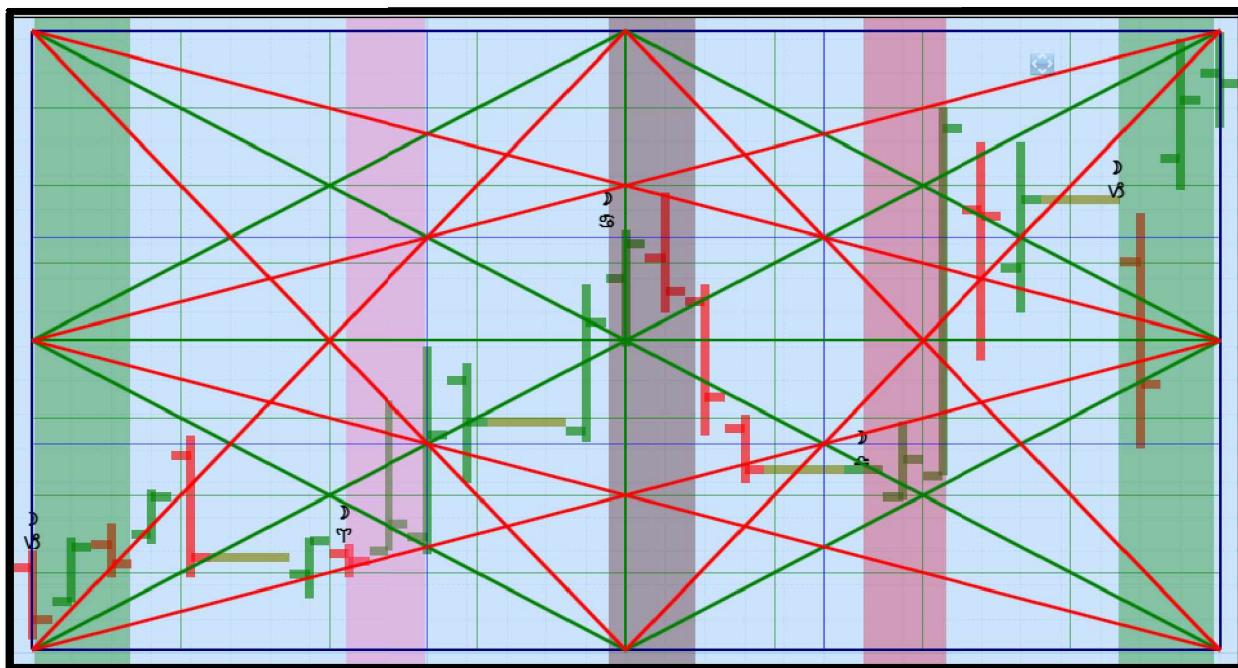

As revealed in my Lunar Vibrations DVD, it has been said that W.D. Gann was just using the Moon to forecast Time and Price, later in his life. The best example we have is his Coffee chart where he specifically wrote "Moon Signs". This coffee chart has so many clues for one to decipher, some which I explain in my courses.

The number 13 is associated with the Moon as it travels an average of 13 degrees a day and orbits the Earth 13 times in one year. The radius of the Moon is 1,080 miles compared to the Earth at 3,960 miles, a ratio of 3:11. When you divide 3 into 11 the result is 0.27272727. The Moon's sidereal cycle, that is once it returns to a fixed point or star (sidi) is 27.3 days. If you add the sum of $1+2+3+4+5+6+7+8+9+10+11+12+13$ you'll get 91, the number of days in a season and 13 times 4 equals 52, the number of weeks in a year. The Mayan priests (astronomers) designed megaliths like El Castillo in Chichen Itza, which has 4 flights of 91 on 4 sides of the pyramid totalling 364 plus the high altar on top – 365 days.

Ancient Hebrew and Vedic calendars were and still are Lunar based. We know W.D. Gann travelled to India, where he found the SQ9 and other divisional systems. In the Vedic system, there are 27 lunar mansions or Nakshatras, - each day the Moon enters a new mansion every 13.33333 degrees (13 degrees and 20 minutes) and in one sidereal day we have 800 minutes ($13 \times 60 + 20$) divided by 1440 minutes in one day equals 1.8 - 18 being the number of the Moon. Next time you look at a deck of Tarot cards, take particular notice of the numbers of the Moon and Sun, you should see a clue to Gann's Financial Time Table.

Gann had many esoteric titles listed on his recommended reading list to his students – the Tarot being one such path of study. 78 cards in total 3 times JEHOVAH (26), 22 Major Arcana (22 letters of the Hebrew alphabet) plus 56 – see page 56 of Gann's coded novel "The Tunnel Thru the Air" for extra keys.

Below I have constructed my own lunar pyramid using a Gann Box, on daily Coffee. Study it carefully and you'll discover the underlying esoteric principles behind Gann's emblem and his seasons applicable to all cycles – like Ezekiel wrote "Wheels within Wheels".
