DunnWell's new Durham location.

DunnWell Moves To Durham

Spectra Builders recently completed an interior fit-up for DunnWell's new office, located on Creekstone Drive in Durham, N.C. The building is owned and managed by Highwoods Properties.

DunnWell is a risk management company that provides safer environments for employees and guests by helping to prevent fires through Kitchen Exhaust Cleaning (KEC). They also offer a variety of fire protection products and systems.

Spectra project superintendent Joe Ramey received a number of compliments from Highwoods Properties on the outstanding job he did on the DunnWell project.

Spectra Partners With Progress Energy On Improvements To Corporate Headquarters

Spectra Builders is in the midst of four renovation projects at Progress Energy of the Carolinas' corporate headquarters building. The projects range from 5,000 to 10,000 square feet and will enable the company to improve efficiency by relocating departments. Spectra is performing the work in a manner that does not disrupt the firm's normal day-to-day operations. Project superintendent Woody Magoon has received kudos from Progress Energy management for his dedication and strong work ethic.
