The Obituary

Mr. Clifton Alphonso McCullum, known to family and friends as “Butch”, was born on October 6, 1941 to Jennie McCullum and Clifton Johnson in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. After a period of illness, Clifton passed away on February 27, 2023.

Before he was a year old, after the death of his mother, he was lovingly cared for by his maternal grandmother, Margie McCullum. He received his formal education from Winston-Salem Schools and attended Atkins High School.

Clifton enjoyed working on cars and was a mechanic by trade. Additionally, he was employed by Douglas Battery, HanesBrands, and served as a sexton at Reynolda Presbyterian Church where he provided maintenance services and set up for various church activities.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his sisters: Sandra Hoyle and Patricia Strickland; and his maternal grandmother.

He leaves to cherish his memories; his sisters, Eliner Walker, Dorothy Taylor, Vickie McCollum, Deborah McCollum and Bertha McCullum; brothers, Lester McCollum, and John McCullum; godson, Lovell McCollum; a host of nieces, nephews; and godchildren; and his devoted friends, Michael Bristow and Ray Bristow.
