

THE FIVE PRACTICES OF EXEMPLARY LEADERSHIP

A Virtual Leadership Development Cohort

In the face of challenge and change, there is opportunity. Opportunity to learn and transform, and to awaken to new possibilities within you.

This interactive and collaborative virtual leadership development series will ignite curiosity, expand mindset, refresh skill sets, and build a tool kit to help develop exemplary leadership.

The series consists of six, 90-minute virtual sessions, each designed around a specific leadership competency, that includes tools to support skill-building in that competency. Participants will be given an assignment to practice with the tools between sessions.

Throughout the series, participants will engage in meaningful dialogue and gain insight as they collaborate with each other. Learning will expand for all members as stories of challenge and success are shared and support offered from diverse perspectives.

Participants will receive support materials, in advance of each session, including reference materials to build knowledge, tools to build skills, assignments, and a journal to capture notes.

TESTIMONIALS

“Reflective, thought-provoking. The series challenged my thinking and gave me new skills.”

“I learned so much from the other participants and their experiences.”

“Great experience. The course time and content were perfectly balanced. It was great to cross into and learn from a variety of work professions and diverse demographic businesses.”
