Reflections

By the Rev. Beverly J. Huck

Embracing the New Normal — But How?

Fall is upon us and little did we expect that we would still be dealing with the pandemic. As numbers rise it makes us stop and wonder if we will ever be free of it. It is difficult to comprehend that a virus can so alter and change our lives, but it has. I do believe, in many respects, this is our new normal. So how do we embrace it?

I recently read a story of a young woman who was feeling overwhelmed not just about Covid but also all the headlines in the news – Afghanistan, gun violence, hurricanes, fires, etc. She didn't know how to stop feeling anxious and then she met an 87-year-old man. He talked to her about living through polio, diphtheria, World War II, the Korean, Vietnam, Iraq and Afghanistan wars, numerous hurricanes — and yet he is still enchanted with life. When she asked him about how this past year and a half had to have been especially challenging for him, he told her it wasn't. He told her he learned a long time ago not to see the world through the printed headlines. Rather, he told her, "I see the world through the people that surround me. I see the world with the realization that we love big. Therefore, I just choose to write my own headlines. So, my headline for today is 'Old man makes a new friend.'"

It's a good thing to remember as we enter the fall season. We need to write our own headlines and surround ourselves with people who care and love us. Even more importantly we need to embrace that all-encompassing love of God and recognize it in everything we see and do.

Fall is the perfect time to witness and feel the creative forces of God

Grace Happens...

All the time. Grace is God's gift to us.

The signs of God's grace are abundant. Some are dramatic. Many at first glance seem mundane.
All are potentially life transforming.

God created us, but God
was not – and is not,
finished with creating.
God keeps showing up.
God is very much at work.

Our job, as God's creatures, is to pay attention to God's grace.
And to join with God
in God's work.

*O Lord, you are our Father;
we are the clay,
and you are our potter;
we are all the work of your hand.*

*Now consider, we are all your people.

Did you know?

There are people we don't know who are worshipping with us on Sundays. Online. They find our service on our Facebook page.

We started out live streaming the service from an iPhone. Thanks to Rev. Bev, we now have a camera that gives us a nicer presentation. People are able to check in and let us know they're there.

If you're on Facebook, watch the service live or later. Invite friends to view it by sharing it. Do your own posts or share ours. Talk about something at church that touched you with friends and in the groups you follow. Ask folks about their prayer concerns and we will add them to our list at St. Luke's. You never know how the Good News we share will

A Prayer for Haiti from The Presiding Bishop

Eternal God, send forth your Spirit to encourage and strengthen the people of Haiti in these difficult times. We pray especially for those impacted by the recent earthquake. Encourage and strengthen those who help and support others. In your mercy, receive the souls of those who have died; comfort their families and loved ones. Surround with your presence the sick and suffering. Aid the work of those who still search and rescue. Empower the medical and aid workers and all who labor to heal.

Likewise, inspire and empower the resolve of the nations and peoples of the world to be your instruments of help and healing. Stir up the might of your love and compassion among the nations to rally resources and stay the course until the humanitarian job is accomplished.

Lastly, enfold and uphold the people of Haiti—from the youngest newly born to the oldest among us—in the arms of your love and the strength of your might. This we pray in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Supporting Partners in Haiti

Episcopal Relief & Development is in close contact with long-term development partners in Haiti after a 7.2 magnitude earthquake struck the country on Saturday, August 14, 2021. The earthquake killed over a thousand people, caused structures to collapse and triggered landslides and flooding in the western part of the nation.

Embracing the New Normal—But How?

around us. We often think of the fall as a time when everything withers and dies. But fall is much more than that. It is a time for the harvest and all the plants and leaves to let their nutrients seep back into the ground for there to be renewal and rebirth in the spring.

And don't forget that before the leaves fall, there is an explosion of vibrant colors that is absolutely breathtaking. The colors of fall remind us that we are solidly rooted in God's love for us.

A writer describes it this way: Red symbolizes fire, passion, and love and when aligned with the gospel brings redemption. Orange is all about energy and positive momentum and focuses on God's unshakable joy and hope for us. The color of brown represents earth, connective rootedness and reliability which provides safety, warmth, wholeness, and a sense of belonging that is all rooted in God's love for us.

So, this fall season enjoy the ever-changing colors that remind us that God's love is brilliant, breathtaking, and awe inspiring. But more importantly stay rooted in God's love for that is where we learn not be anxious and learn to love big.

— Rev. Beverly

Season of Creation

St. Luke's will use a special set of Prayers of the People during the Season of Creation, from Sept. 1 through Oct. 4. The season is celebrated by Christians around the world as a time for renewing, repairing and restoring our relationship to God, one another, and all of creation. The Episcopal Church joins this international effort for prayer and action for climate justice and an end to environmental racism and ecological destruction. Vestry Notes

How many parishioners have ever attended a Vestry meeting? A guess? Not many. But did you know that there is nothing preventing a parishioner from attending? In fact, if one did, one would discover some fascinating facts about the inner workings of the parish.

Attend and take a behind-the-scenes look at how our House of God is taken care of — and who takes care of it. For example, who calls up the tree company to come and trim a branch in danger of falling? Who fixes a broken boiler so there is heat on a winter Sunday? How are the bills paid? Who organizes events at church? Who decides what fundraising projects the parish takes on for outreach and where those proceeds are spent?

Kudos to your Wardens and Vestry. The members are elected by you at the Annual meeting to run our Parish. And they do a great job — behind the scenes.

Say a word of thanks the next time you see one of them. Most likely this coming Sunday morning...

A New, Ongoing Ministry for Animal Welfare

The Vestry has identified animal welfare as a new, ongoing monthly ministry for St. Luke's. Our first pet supplies ingathering will take place on Sunday, October 3 when we hold our Blessing of the Animals service at Noon.

Many of you know that our own Fr. Paul Gulya is part of a monthly caravan of animal lovers who volunteer to drive 1,600 miles from NJ to Georgia and back in order to relocate animals from high-kill shelter to receiving rescues and homes. Our first collection will go to benefit his charity. To learn more about Animal Aid's education, advocacy and awareness efforts, visit their website at About Animal Aid USA (animalaidusa.org). We will also support additional local animal welfare organizations such as CLAWS (Closter Animal Welfare Society) in Bergenfield.

Here are some of the MOST NEEDED Pet Supply Items

Non-perishable dog/cat food, bowls, treats, leashes, grooming supplies, toys, blankets, towels, linens, beds, wire crates, kitty litter, scoops & litter boxes, cleaning supplies, paper towels, trash bags, and any other pet related items

Bishop Hughes' Vlog

POSTED BY CARLYE J. HUGHES

Keep your lamps trimmed and burning

Bishop Hughes has stuck in her head the spiritual "Keep your lamps trimmed and burning," and finds it a comforting instruction for us to follow in these troubling, chaotic times. (Time: 5:25.)

Video Transcript

This is Bishop Hughes in the Diocese of Newark. All day long I have had a particular spiritual in my mind. And I finally just started listening to it online and found a wonderful recording that I'll make sure the link is available to you to listen to, but it's "Keep your lamps trimmed and burning." And like so many spirituals those lyrics repeat: "Keep your lamps trimmed and burning, keep your lamps trimmed and burning, keep your lamps trimmed and burning, the time is drawing near."

I think those words have been incredibly comforting to me in part because they remind me of that parable that we read of in Matthew and in Luke, the parable of the bridegroom and the five wise and the five foolish virgins. They show up, these young women, and they have their lamps, and they need their lamps to provide light in the bridal celebration that they're going to. And five of them have oil in their lamps so that when the time comes and the door opens their lamps are lit and can help light the way and they go straight on into the celebration. Five of them realize they don't have oil – they showed up and they weren't ready – so they have to leave and go shopping and find oil, and when the doors open, they are not there to go in.

I have found that a helpful way to think about this time. There is so much happening. We are hard pressed – even those of us who don't want to watch the news – we are hard-pressed to ignore all that is happening around us. The absolute chaos happening in Afghanistan right now. The tragedy that is happening in Haiti right now post-earthquake. The devastation in the west of the United States from the largest wildfires ever seen in the history of those states.

These are hard things to watch and to watch the amount of suffering and to know that it's there. And then on top of it or underneath it all or holding it all, is this incredible sense of disappointment that we're all facing regarding coronavirus and this pandemic. We really thought we might be beginning to transition out of it and this new variant, the delta variant, has really changed all of that. So this summer that we thought would be much more like something we recognized has again turned into something that requires quite a deal of care and consideration. And if that's where we are in the summer where will we be in the fall and winter? And how are we to keep our lamps trimmed and burning, when all we want like everybody else is to be done with this kind of sorrow and this kind of tragedy and this kind of complicated life that we're in.

It's helpful to remember that our job really is to keep ourselves ready. That's all those women who showed up at the celebration needed, is they just needed to be ready. It's God's job to open the door and to prepare the way for us, and God did that all of last year, all through every bit of this pandemic, and will continue to do that for us and for the people of the world who are in need, especially in places like Afghanistan, Haiti and in our own west coast.

So for us it means using all the Food and passion create a sublime alchemy in Like Water for Chocolate, a first novel ("the number one bestseller in Mexico in 1990") and a film whose characters experience life so intensely that they sometimes literally smolder. Liberally sprinkled with recipes and homemade remedies, this tale from screenwriter Laura Esquivel tells of love, betrayal and a family torn apart by traditions.

October's Selection

THE #1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER IS NOW A MAJOR-MOTION PICTURE
Directed by Ron Howard and Starring
Amy Adams, Glenn Close, and Gabriel Basso

"Hillbilly Elegy is a passionate and personal analysis of a culture in crisis—that of white working-class Americans. The disintegration of this group, a process that has been slowly occurring now for more than forty years, has been reported with growing frequency and alarm, but has never before been written about as searingly from the inside. J. D. Vance tells the true story of what a social, regional, and class decline feels like when you were born with it hung around your neck.

RESPONDING TO EMERGENCIES IN THE U.S.

In addition to its collaborative “boots on the ground” partnerships within the Anglican Communion that connect it with communities in countries around the world, Episcopal Relief & Development works with dioceses across the U.S. to assist members of vulnerable groups in the immediate aftermath of natural and human-made disasters like hurricanes, tornadoes, oil spills and others, like COVID-19. To learn more about ER-D’s domestic projects, click here: Responding to emergencies in the US \(Full List\) - Episcopal Relief & Development

This list of current responses is updated on a monthly basis:

- Helping evacuees of the Dixie and Caldor fires in California
- Relief projects for March Alabama and Georgia tornadoes
- Responding to Spring floods in the South
- Helping at the Texas border
- Responding to the Winter storm in the South
- Providing relief from Western U.S. wildfires things that we have discovered in the past year. That our relationships are very important to us and we need to tend to those. That prayer time is something that takes us deeper into relationship with God and with each other. That as important as contemplative prayer is, praying with others is also important. That when we study scripture, we remember things that help us to live our life, like remembering to keep our lamps trimmed and ready. We know that gathering with people of faith gives us inspiration, it gives us comfort and peace, and it gives us the confidence we need to go out and share the faith with a world that really needs to know that they are beloved by God and that we love them too.

We have much to face in the coming weeks and months, and most of it we don't even know exactly what will be coming around the corner. Most of it is unknown to us. But one thing we do know to be true: that God is always there for us. And, when we allow ourselves, when we make ourselves ready, we're able to see not only what God is doing for us but what God is doing for the whole wide world.

Keep your lamps trimmed and burning.

A BIG Birthday Celebration: Louise Meyers

The COVID pandemic prevented St. Luke's from celebrating a very special birthday for Louis Meyers last year. So on Aug. 29, everyone enjoyed a special coffee hour luncheon courtesy of Chris Emerizy and Karen Moylan who drove up from South Jersey. In addition to friends from St. Luke's, Louise was feted by a number of her friends from the First Dog training club. A great time was had by all!

HAPPY 90+1, Louise!

Our Parish Prayer Concerns

Loving God, the comfort of all who sorrow, the strength of all who suffer: accept our prayers, and to those who seek healing [especially those named on our Parish Prayer List and all whom we name in our hearts], grant the power of your grace, that the weak may be strengthened, sickness turned to health, the dying made whole, and sorrow turned into joy; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

Our brothers and sisters at St. Andrew's/Harrington Park have asked for our continued prayers as they seek new leadership. The prayer they have been praying together seems apt for all of us.

A Prayer for Transition

Loving God, in this time of transition, we give thanks for all that you have brought to pass in this Parish. May this time be one of continued growth for us all, and also a time of dreams for where you are calling all of us to build your kingdom. Amen.

Additional Prayers on Pages 10 & 11

PRAYERS for Our World

A Prayer for the 9/11 Anniversary

Almighty God,
Even as the painful memories of 9/11 are seared into our hearts,
We yet hold fast to the hope that even now springs forth from the ashes.
We pray for those still suffering from loss or injury
As a result of the tragic events of that day.

Let us never forget those who risked or lost their lives to save others.
Their sacrifices and love represent the best in humanity
And the path to which Christ still calls each of us.
As we continue to mourn those who died,
May we honor them by being loving neighbors to all.
Toward building a lasting peace through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for Departed Veterans

O God, by whose mercy the faithful departed find rest, look kindly on your departed veterans who gave their lives in the service of their country. Grant that through the passion, death, and resurrection of your Son they may share in the joy of your heavenly kingdom and rejoice in you with your saints forever. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Remembering especially the service members and Afghans killed in the recent Isis attack on the airport in Kabul

A Prayer for Refugees and Victims of War

Lord God, no one is a stranger to you and no one is ever far from your loving care. In your kindness, watch over refugees and victims of war, those separated from their loved ones, young people who are lost,
and those who have left home or who have run away from home.
Bring them back safely to the place where they long to be and help us always to show your kindness to strangers and to all in need.
Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYERS for Our World

A Prayer in Time of Disaster

Gracious God, we pray for those who have been devastated by recent natural disasters, fire, floods, drought and heat. We remember those who have lost their lives so suddenly. We hold in our hearts the families forever changed by grief and loss. Bring them consolation and comfort. Surround them with our prayer for strength. Bless those who have survived and heal their memories of trauma and devastation. May they have the courage to face the long road of rebuilding ahead.

We ask your blessing on all those who have lost their homes, their livelihoods, their security and their hope. Bless the work of relief agencies and those providing emergency assistance. May their work be guided by the grace and strength that comes from You alone.

Help us to respond with generosity in prayer, in assistance, in aid to the best of our abilities. Keep our hearts focused on the needs of those affected, even after the crisis is over. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

A Back To School Prayer

Loving God, watch over our children as they go back to school, in person or virtually. Guide and protect those who learn, replacing fear with joy, anxiety with peace, and tiredness with energy. Give wisdom, patience and joy to the teachers who serve our students and to all those whose support roles make learning possible in our schools. Bless those parents and caretakers who try to manage home schooling during these trying times. We pray you provide your wisdom and grace to all those who walk this new ground for a new school year. In Jesus' name. Amen.

For Quiet Confidence

O God of peace, you have taught us that in returning and rest we shall be saved, in quietness and confidence shall be our strength: By the might of your Spirit lift us, we pray you, to your presence, where we may be still and know that you are God; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

St Luke's Episcopal Church

St. Luke's is a church in the Episcopal Diocese of Newark, N.J. We seek to be a bridge between traditions and communities. We welcome anyone who wants to learn and grow in the knowledge and love of God. Our members come from many different traditions but are joined together through a love of Christ and our neighbors. We are located at the crossroads of Demarest, Haworth, Dumont, and Cresskill.
