Obituary

William "Ricky Jr." DeRemus Cundiff, Jr. was born in Winston-Salem, North Carolina to Rebecca Jean Thompson and William DeRemus Cundiff, Sr. He departed this life, leaving family and friends, on April 11, 2026.

He was educated in the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County School System and was a graduate of North Forsyth High School. After graduating, he chose a career in culinary arts and loved to cater food for his friends. He held team positions at Longhorn Steakhouse, Giannos of High Point, and Zaxby's. Ricky Jr. later devoted his life to becoming an excellent dog trainer and secured satisfying employment at Happytail Puppies.

In addition to food and dogs, Ricky enjoyed sports and was an avid Pittsburgh Steelers Football fan. He also especially enjoyed Duke Blue Devil basketball.

In addition to other ancestors, Ricky Jr. is preceded in death by his mother, Rebecca Jean Thompson

He leaves to cherish and honor his memory: his father, William D. Cundiff, Sr. (Nita); daughter, Gabrielle Johnson (Dante); two sisters, Lakesha Cundiff Dunbar (Pastor James Dunbar), Geraldine Laynay Cundiff; three brothers, Kris Hauser Andrews, Rashad Collins and James D. Cundiff; and a host of extended family, nieces, nephews, cousins, his girlfriend, Tina Bolden; special friends, Tyrone and Joy Taylor, and Jairus Combs.

The Broken Chain

We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.

In Remembrance

You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.
