Family and friends

2 Timothy 4:7

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith".

Statement of Gratitude

The family of Gloria Denise Moore wishes to express our deepest and most sincere appreciation for every act of kindness, love, and support shown to us during this time of bereavement. Your prayers, comforting words, visits, calls, flowers, cards, and all other expressions of sympathy have been a source of strength and encouragement.

We are especially grateful for the outpouring of love from family, friends, and the Zion Memorial Missionary Baptist Church family, whose presence and support have meant so much to us.

We also acknowledge with heartfelt gratitude the professional care and compassion provided by the doctors, nurses, and staff of the Surgical Intensive Care Unit (SICU #1) and the 4th Floor General Medicine (4100 Wing), both at Duke University Medical Center in Durham, North Carolina. Your dedication, kindness, and comfort will never be forgotten.

May God bless each of you for your thoughtfulness and love.

She found joy in the simple things—being outdoors, gardening, and planting flowers. She enjoyed all kinds of sports—football, basketball, softball, baseball, and almost every Olympic event. If there was a game on, she and her beloved husband Gilbert would surely be tuned in and watching together.

Her life was beautifully summed up in the words: Live, Laugh, Love. Gloria truly lived a full life, filled with laughter and a love so strong and pure. Her presence could light up any room—her radiant smile, joyful laughter, and expressive eyes brought warmth to everyone around her. When she entered a space, her energy was felt by all.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories her devoted and loving husband, Gilbert Moore of the home; two daughters, Lagonda (James) McGruder of Durham, NC, whom she adored and doted on, and Mary Jamerson of Sanford, NC; two sons, Gary Snipes and Chevar (Katrina) Snipes, all of Winston-Salem, NC; six grandchildren, Jayden McGruder, who held a special place in her heart, and James (JC) McGruder - "Lil' Man", both of Durham, NC, Jasmine Snipes, CJ Snipes, and Rayshawn Snipes, all of Winston-Salem, NC, and Morgan Jamerson of Sanford, NC; four sisters, Jacqueline (Charles) McArthur of Angier, NC, Victoria Rivers of Eastover, SC, Geneva Moore, and adopted sister Stephanie Benson, both of Winston-Salem, NC; five brothers, Franklin McRae of Laurel Hill, NC, Marcus (LaToya) Winston of Irmo, SC, Ronald Moore of Winston-Salem, NC, Steve (Shari) Moore and Keith (Abby) Moore, both of Cincinnati, OH; her stepmother, Virginia Winston of Eastover, SC; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family, and dear friends.

A life that touches others goes on forever. Gloria's life was truly a blessing, her memory a treasure. She is loved beyond words and will be missed beyond measure.

The Obituary

Proverbs 31:31

"Honor her for all that her hands have done, and let her works bring her praise at the city gate."

Gloria Denise Moore, born September 7, 1957, passed away peacefully on March 23, 2026. She leaves behind a legacy of love, faith, and unwavering strength that will forever be cherished by her family, friends, and community.

Gloria was the beloved daughter of the late Callie Ree McLeod and the late Jesse Winston. She was also preceded in death by her mother-in-law, Beulah Moore ("Me-Mah"); her loving son, Shaun Lamont Moore; two sisters, Yvonne McRae and Jacqueline Rhodes; and one brother, David Winston.

She attended Scotland County High School in Laurinburg, North Carolina, and furthered her education at Winston-Salem State University, completing three years of college. Gloria dedicated over 40 years of faithful service to the Employment Security Commission, where her commitment, diligence, and integrity left a lasting impact.

A woman deeply rooted in faith, Gloria was a devoted member of Zion Memorial Missionary Baptist Church. She served faithfully on the Usher Board and was a proud member of the Senior Choir. She will be greatly missed by her Zion Memorial Missionary Baptist Church family.

To know Gloria was to love her. She never met a stranger and always had a warm, loving smile to share. She was the epitome of strength and perseverance—authentic and genuine in all that she did, with a heart of gold. Gloria loved taking pictures, one of her favorite pastimes, capturing memories that will now be treasured forever.

Gloria also had a deep love for music. Her taste spanned generations and genres — from Aretha Franklin, Gladys Knight and The Temptations, to Roger and Zapp, Morris Day and The Time; from Sade and Anita Baker to Hall & Oates and Phil Collins; from Billy Ocean and Gerald Levert to gospel greats such as John P. Kee, The Rance Allen Group, Kirk Franklin, Hezekiah Walker, Fred Hammond, The Clark Sisters, Tasha Cobbs, and Tamela Mann. Regardless of what was playing, Gloria would surely lend clapping hands, a bounce, and a step.

Always on the move, Gloria was happiest when helping others, giving her time and love freely wherever and whenever she could. Grounded in her faith, she lived each day with purpose, poise, compassion, and grace.

With Our Love

John 11:25-26

"I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; and whoever lives by believing in me will never die."

A bouquet of beautiful memories
Sprayed with a million tears.
I wish God could have spared you
If just for a few years.

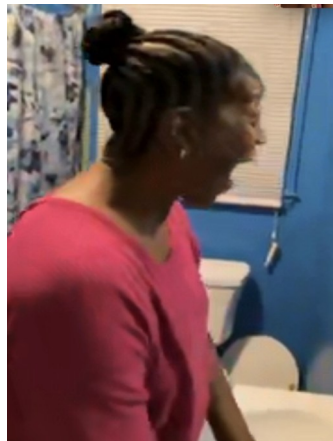

We hold you close within our hearts,
And there you will remain.
To walk with us throughout our lives
Until we meet again.

So rest in peace dear loved one
And thanks for all you've done.
We pray that God has given you
The crown you've truly won.

Your vacant place no one can fill.
We miss you now and always will.

Forever In Our Hearts

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me,
for now I'm free
I'm following the path
God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call.
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared,
a laugh, a kiss.
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with
time of sorrows,
I wish you the sunshine
of tomorrow.
My life's been full,
I savored much
Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed
all too brief.
Don't lengthen it now
with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and
share with me,
God wanted me now;
he set me free.
