Gone Fishin'

...Where every day is a day to fish,
To fill your heart with every wish.
Don't worry, or feel sad for me,
I'm fishin' with the Master of the sea.

We will miss each other for awhile,
But you will come and bring your smile.
That won't be long you will see,
Till we're together you and me.

To all of those that think of me,
Be happy as I go out to sea.
If others wonder why I'm missin'
Just tell 'em I've gone fishin'.

Obituary

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish but have everlasting life.”
John 3: KJV

Mr. Hillard William Summers, Jr., affectionately known to family and friends as “Billy”, was born to the late Hillard William Summers, Sr. and Mary Remele Dobson Summers on March 10, 1954.

He attended Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools and graduated from North Forsyth High School. Mr. Summers spent his professional career in different capacities at R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, retiring after 38 years of service. He was a member of Piney Grove Baptist Church where he participated in various activities with his family. He could often be found at his favorite fishing hole or strategically playing billiards. He was a strong man who could easily melt when holding one of his grandchildren in his arms while of course flashing his signature smile.

Mr. Summers was preceded in death by his parents and passed away on August 3, 2024 after a brief period of illness.
