Together Again

*Our Father knows what's best for us
So why should we complain.
We always want the sunshine
But he knows there must be rain.*

*Our father tests us often
With suffering and with sorrow.
He tests us not to punish us
But to help us meet tomorrow.*

Obituary

Gloria Watson Campbell was born in Winston-Salem, NC to the late James and Oneta Watson. On Monday, March 24, 2025 at age 85, she passed away in her native city.

She received her formal education in Winston-Salem/ Forsyth County Schools and was a proud graduate of the Atkins High School Class of 1958.

Gloria married the late Graham Franklin Campbell in 1961 and they developed a loving family with their 3 children. They remained married for over 45 years until he passed away in 2007.

Gloria worked in a variety of bookkeeping and accounting positions over the years that included employment with State of North Carolina, and the old A&P Grocery Store headquarters.

She went back to school after her children were adults and received her Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration from North Carolina A & T State University.

Gloria loved children, and later in life, found her calling working as a teacher's aide at Colfax Elementary School before retiring.

Gloria was preceded in death by: her husband of 45 years, Graham Franklin Campbell; her grandson, Geoffrey Campbell; and brothers, James Watson, Jr. and Lorenzo Watson, Sr.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her children, Gregory Campbell, Gigi (Michael) Conrad Jr., and Garry Campbell; grandchildren, DeAsia Jones, Dwain (DeQuaria) Jones, Jr., Michael Conrad III, Najeanna Logan; great grandchildren, Davyn Jones, Dayana Jones and Daymya Jones; 2 bonus granddaughters, DeMarii and DeMonii; and a host of nephews, nieces, relatives, and dear friends.

A Mother's Love

*A Mother's love is something that no one can explain,
It is made of deep devotion
and of sacrifice and pain,*

It is endless and unselfish and enduring come what may For nothing can destroy it or take that love away . . .

*It is patient and forgiving
when all others are forsaking,
And it never fails or falters even though the heart is breaking . . .*

*It believes beyond believing when the world around condemns,
And it glows with all the beauty of the rarest, brightest gems . . .*

A many splendored miracle man cannot understand And another wondrous evidence of God's tender guiding hand.
