This is a congregational participatory sermon series and at the conclusion of each message, different parishioners are asked to respond to three questions in a 1-5 minute time frame. Church members are asked to consider the following and share with the congregation in 1-5 minutes:

- What is your understanding of the verse or passage of scripture?
- How does the verse or passage of scripture speak to you personally?
- You plan to do what specifically to implement the verse or passage of scripture in your daily walk with God and others?
