

The Story of Edwin Wiley Grove

The Man behind Grove High School, & much more...

Lunch & Learn

I had a little drug business in Paris, Tennessee, just barely making a living, when I got up a real invention, tasteless quinine. As a poor man and a poor boy, I conceived the idea that whoever could produce a tasteless chill tonic, his fortune was made.”

Pharmacist, Innovator, Marketer, Entrepreneur, Visionary, Developer, Builder & Philanthropist.

Grove's Story by Doctor David Webb

February 24th Noon at Cavitt Place, 614 N. Poplar Street

RSVP by day before to director@phhc.com or call 731-642-1030 see you soon!