IBTA Announces New Certification Course in Accounting and Budgeting to be Released Next Year

Austin, TX, August 2, 2021 – The International Business Training Association (IBTA), sponsor of the Certified Business Professional (CBP) certification, is currently developing a new professional certification course in Accounting and Budgeting. This course is scheduled to be released in 2022 and will be a welcome addition to IBTA's current line up of industry-neutral professional certifications.

As an essential business function, Accounting and Budgeting falls well in line with IBTA's mission of providing foundational business skills training to professionals around the world. This program will be complete with sample accounts, example reports, and definitions of major accounting terms. In addition to the accounting elements, this course will include information about budgeting and managing accounts to promote successful business practices. IBTA is looking forward to providing this expanded offering and rounding out the variety of professional certifications available. This new course displays IBTA's commitment to developing professionals across industries and nations in order to promote excellence in every economic sector.

The 1st edition of the CBP Accounting and Budgeting course will guide professionals through the process of recording journal entries, managing double entry accounting, conforming to the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP), and more. Students will also learn about various accounting software programs and how to implement them into business operations.

Vice President of IBTA, Dario Morell commented on the Accounting and Budgeting course as a new addition to the CBP course roster: "The CBP Accounting and Budgeting course is an exciting new offering from IBTA. This course will be a crucial resource for emerging and seasoned business professionals around the world. The clarity and accessibility of the information presented in this course will ensure that business professionals everywhere are able to implement the accounting methods and practices that result in growth and business success. IBTA is thrilled to expand into this well-established business discipline by offering the CBP designation to financial and accounting professionals.” The Accounting and Budgeting course is currently in development and is scheduled to be released in 2022.

IBTA takes pride in offering leading educational content and continuing to expand and diversify those offerings. “IBTA is committed to providing professionals around the world with essential business training that is constantly being updated, improved, and adapted,” concluded Dario Morell.
