

Forever In Our Hearts

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.*

~ Helen Lowrie Marshall

That Man is a Success

That man is a success
who has lived well,
laughed often and loved much;
who has gained the respect of intelligent men and women and the love of children;
who has filled his niche and accomplished his task;
who leaves the world better than he found it,
who has never lacked appreciation of Earth's beauty or failed to express it;
who looked for the best in others,
and gave the best he had.

Obituary

Mr. Clarence Williams Moore was born on November 6, 1949 in Bennettsville, SC to Warren Moore and Annie Laura McCall. There he attended the local public schools.

For over 35 years, he was employed at K & W Cafeteria, holding various positions including line and grill worker, take out service, servicing and bussing tables and floor attendant. Beyond that, he also worked as a brick mason and held a multitude of jobs from Charlotte to Rockingham, NC.

He loved fishing, hunting, chilling, listening to music, and cooking. He never met a stranger. With his “get it done” attitude, nothing was too hard for him.

Clarence passed away on February 7, 2024. He was preceded in death by his parents; sisters, Robersina Wilson, Anne Wilson; niece, Andrea Wilson; nephew, James Wilson. On the day after Clarence's death, his nephew, Timothy Wilson, unexpectedly passed away.

Survivors who remain to cherish his memory include: his wife, Velma Lucille Parker Moore; sisters, Daisy Green and Ida Shannon; aunt, Vera Chestnut; brother-in-law, Tommy (Barbara) Parker; beloved special friend and fishing buddy, Lloyd Cline; ride or die friend, Nate Hairston; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family, and friends.

Remember Me

Gone Fishin'

I've finished life's chores assigned to me
So put me on a boat headed out to sea.
Please send along my fishing pole
For I've been invited to the fishin' hole.
Where every day is a day to fish
To fill your heart with every wish.
Don't worry, or feel sad for me
I'm fishin' with the Master of the sea.
We will miss each other for awhile
But you will come and bring your smile
That won't be long you will see
Till we're together you and me.
To all of those that think of me
Be happy as I go out to sea.
If others wonder why I'm missin'
Just tell 'em I've gone fishin'
