

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow
of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
to dry before the sun
of happy memories
that I leave when life is done.

Obituary

Mr. Norman Carthell Robinson was born February 3, 1948 in Winston-Salem, NC to the late Harry Lee Caruthers and Frances Pearl Robinson. He attended the local schools and was a student at Anderson High School. Following high school, he lived in Florida, South Carolina and Georgia before returning to Winston-Salem.

Affectionately called “Oogie”, he was well known and well respected in the community. A Dallas Cowboys fanatic, he was also a pool enthusiast and a car hobbyist. He had a sweet tooth he loved to satisfy. Cereal and milk was among his favorite meals.

“Oogie” passed away unexpectedly on Saturday, October 31, 2020. He was preceded in death by his parents; two sisters: Carolyn Robinson and Cheryl Lynn Robinson; and brother, Reginald Bernard Addison.

He is survived by his son, Norman C. Patterson; six grandchildren: Najee Hairston, Faith Hairston, Jaiontai Roseborough, Jalena Roseborough, Nakia Hughes-Patterson and Juallion Horton-Patterson; three brothers: Jonathan Robinson, Warren (Gail) Robinson and Donald (Angela) Lineberger; a host of nieces, nephews; Brown, Manning and Miller families; other relatives and many friends.
