- B. Upon request of either party, representatives of the Board and the Union negotiating committees may meet at a time convenient to both parties for the purpose of reviewing the administration of this agreement and to examine problems which may arise out of the administration of this contract. These meetings are not intended to by-pass the negotiations or grievance procedures. Further, each party will submit to the other, at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the meeting, an agenda covering what they wish to discuss.

- C. During the course of any negotiations described in this article, the parties mutually pledge that such negotiations shall be conducted in good faith.

ARTICLE 8
GRIEVANCE/ARBITRATION PROCEDURES

Section 1 – Grievance Procedure

- A. PURPOSE: The purpose of this procedure is to secure, at the lowest possible administrative level, equitable solutions to the problems which may arise involving the interpretation and/or application of the contract. The administration and intent of all provisions are subject to the Grievance and Arbitration procedure without limitation except as required by Florida Public Employee Law.
- B. DEFINITIONS:
1. Grievance - The term "Grievance" shall mean a written allegation by a grievant that a controversy, dispute, disagreement, or violation of any kind or character exists out of or in any way involving interpretation or application of the terms of this Agreement.
 2. Grievant - The term "Grievant" shall mean the employee or group of employees filing a grievance. The Union may be the grievant.
 3. Immediate Supervisor - The term "Immediate Supervisor" shall mean the principal of the school where the individual is assigned or an immediate supervisor when the individual is not assigned to a principal.
 4. Employer - The term "Employer" shall mean the School Board or the Administration.
 5. Days - The term "Days" shall mean working days.
 6. Party - The term "Party" shall mean the Board and the Union except in the case where there is no Union backing, then it shall mean the Board and the Grievant.
 7. Bargaining Unit - The term "Bargaining Unit" shall mean all employees of the Board who are members of the Communications Workers of America or eligible to be members of the Union.
- C. TIME LIMITS: Since it is important that the grievances be processed as rapidly as possible, the number of days indicated at each level is to be considered the maximum. Every effort should be made to expedite the process before the deadlines are reached. Time limits may, however, be extended by mutual written agreement between the Union and the Superintendent or designee.
- D. END-OF-YEAR GRIEVANCE: In the event that a grievance is filed at such time that it cannot be processed through all of the steps in the grievance procedure by the end of the Board's Fiscal Year, and if left unresolved until the beginning of the next year, could result in irreparable harm to the grievant or Union, the time limits set forth herein shall be reduced so that the grievance procedure may be exhausted prior to the end of the Board's Fiscal Year or as soon thereafter as possible.

- E. RELEASED TIME: It shall be the general practice of all parties to process grievances during times which do not interfere with or cause interruption of the grievant's work responsibilities.

Release time shall be granted only upon mutual consent of the aggrieved person, the immediate supervisor, and Superintendent or Superintendent Designee. Such released time shall be without loss of pay to the extent required for such participation. All persons involved will make every effort to handle grievances that are being processed promptly and in an expeditious manner.

- F. REPRESENTATION: All members of the bargaining unit shall have the right of Union representation at each level of the grievance procedure at the Union's option. Starting at level one, no grievant may be required to discuss any grievance if the union representative is not present. Any individual employee or group of employees in the bargaining unit shall have the right at any time to present a grievance to the designated representatives of the Board and to have such grievance adjusted without the intervention of the Union, as long as the adjustment is not inconsistent with the Collective Bargaining Agreement and the Union has been given the opportunity to be present and make statements for such adjustments. Copies of the Board representative's decision given at any step of the grievance procedure shall be speedily delivered to the grievant and the Union. A grievant shall not be represented by a representative of any other employee organization except the CWA.

Section 2 – Grievance Progression

- A. INFORMAL DISCUSSION: In the event that an individual employee or a Union representative believes there is a basis for grievance, the individual or the Union representative shall first discuss the alleged grievance with the immediate supervisor. This informal discussion must be requested and should be scheduled within seven (7) working days following knowledge of the act or condition which is the basis of the grievance.
- B. LEVEL ONE: If as a result of the informal discussion with the immediate supervisor a grievance still exists, the grievant and/or Union may invoke formal grievance procedures on a form signed by the grievant or a Union representative. A copy of the grievance form shall be delivered to the immediate supervisor within ten (10) working days of the informal discussion. If the grievance involves more than one work site, it may be filed with the Superintendent or his/her designated grievance representative at level two. The immediate supervisor or designated representative shall have five (5) days after receipt of the grievance in which to hold a conference with the grievant and/or Union. The immediate supervisor or designated representative shall have ten (10) days after the conference with the grievant and/or Union to give a written decision. The immediate supervisor has the option of having representation of his/her choice present during discussion. When a level one discussion is held, copies of the response to the grievance shall be given in writing to the grievant and the Union by the immediate supervisor or designated representative within ten (10) days following the discussion. Such delivery may be electronic.

LEVEL TWO: If the grievance is not resolved to the Union and the grievant's satisfaction or if a written decision is not submitted within the designated time limits at level one, the Union and the grievant may move the grievance to level two by written notice to the Superintendent's designated representative within ten (10) days after the date of the response at level one. The designated representative shall have five (5) days after receipt of the grievance in which to hold a conference with the grievant. The designated representative shall have ten (10) days after the conference with the grievant to give a written decision. Such delivery may be electronic.

LEVEL THREE: If the grievance is not resolved at level two to the Union and the grievant's satisfaction, or if a written decision is not submitted within the designated time limits of level two and before either party formally appeals the grievance to arbitration, the CWA National Representative and Superintendent will meet to review the grievance in an attempt to resolve the issue. Within ten (10) days the Union and the grievant may move the grievance to arbitration. If the two parties cannot agree as to the arbitrator within five (5) days from the notification date that arbitration will be pursued, the party seeking arbitration shall file a request with the Federal Mediation and Conciliation to submit a list of qualified arbitrators. The arbitrators shall then be selected according to the rules of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation. The arbitrator shall confer with the representatives of the Board and the Union and hold hearings promptly and shall issue a decision not later than thirty (30) days from the date of the close of the hearings or final submission. The arbitrator's decision shall be in writing and shall set forth findings of facts, reasons, and conclusions on the issues submitted to arbitration. The decision of the arbitrator shall be submitted to the Board, and the Union/grievant, and shall be final and binding upon both parties.

C. POWERS OF THE ARBITRATOR: It shall be the function of the arbitrator, and the arbitrator shall be empowered, to make a final and binding decision on the grievance.

1. The arbitrator shall have no power to add to, subtract from, disregard, alter, or modify any of the terms of this agreement.
2. If either party disputes the arbitrability of any grievance under the terms of this agreement, the arbitrator shall have to decide if the grievance is arbitrable. In the event that a case is appealed to an arbitrator and the arbitrator rules that the issue is not arbitrable, it shall be referred back to the parties without decision, comment, or recommendation on its merits.

- D. COSTS: The fees and expenses of the arbitrator shall be shared equally by the parties. All other expenses shall be borne by the party incurring them, and neither party shall be responsible for the expense of witnesses called by the other.
- E. NO REPRISALS: No reprisals shall be invoked against any employee for processing a grievance or participating in any way in the grievance procedure. No document of any kind or form pertaining to the initiation, processing or settlement of any grievance whatsoever shall be placed in the personnel file of any member of the bargaining unit.
- F. ACCESS TO INFORMATION: The Board and the Administration will cooperate with the Union in its investigation of any grievance and, further, will furnish the Union with such information as is requested.

Section 3 – Expedited Arbitration

Any grievance of a disciplinary action including demotion, suspension or termination of employment, except those grievances that also involve one or more issues of contract interpretation will be submitted to expedited arbitration after the filing of a request for arbitration by the Union.

For expedited arbitration of grievances involving termination of employment, any decision by the arbitrator to award back pay or benefits shall be based on the time period from the effective date of the grievant's termination up to the date of the arbitrator's decision.

A panel of three (3) arbitrators will be selected and agreed upon by the parties. Each arbitrator will serve until his or her services are terminated by written notice from either party to the other party. The arbitrator will be notified that his or her services are terminated by a joint letter from both parties. The arbitrator will conclude his or her services by deciding any grievances heard before the date of the joint letter notifying him or her of termination of services. A successor arbitrator will be selected and agreed upon by the parties.

Arbitrators will be assigned grievances in rotating order designated and agreed upon by the parties. If a grievance is postponed after an arbitrator has been assigned, the grievance will continue to be assigned to the same arbitrator. If a grievance is settled, cancelled or withdrawn after an arbitrator has been assigned but before the arbitrator decides the grievance, that arbitrator will be the next arbitrator in the rotational order to be assigned a grievance.

If an arbitrator is not available for a hearing within thirty (30) working days after receiving an assignment, the grievance will be passed to the next arbitrator in the rotational order. If no arbitrator can hear the case within thirty (30) working days, the case will be assigned to an arbitrator who can hear the case at the earliest date.

Procedure for Expedited Arbitration

The parties will notify the arbitrator by joint letter of the intent to proceed to expedited arbitration. The arbitrator and the parties will agree to a hearing date.

Before the hearing, the parties may submit to the arbitrator a joint stipulation of any facts that the parties agree are not in dispute.

The hearing will be informal, without formal rules of evidence. However, the arbitrator must be satisfied that the evidence submitted is relevant and of a type on which he or she can reasonably rely, that the hearing is in all respects a fair one, and that all facts reasonably obtainable and necessary for a fair decision are brought before the arbitrator.

A transcript of the hearing is not required. However, either party, at the party's own expense, may order a court reporter to attend the hearing. If either party orders a transcript of the hearing, the other party may obtain a copy of the transcript of the hearing upon payment of half the cost of the transcript.

Upon completion of the arbitration hearing, the arbitrator will render a bench decision consistent with and pursuant to the Contract. The arbitrator may affirm, deny grievance or may modify the discipline.

The decision of the arbitrator will determine the grievance; however, it will only apply to the grievance being arbitrated and will not set practice or precedent.

The time limits above may be extended by written agreement of the parties or at the arbitrator's request.

The decision of the arbitrator will settle the grievance, and the School District, Union and grievant agree to abide by such decision. The compensation and expenses of the arbitrator and the general expenses of the arbitration will be borne by the School District and the Union in equal parts. Each party will bear the expense of its representatives and witnesses. Any expenses incurred because of any cancellation or postponement of an expedited arbitration hearing will be borne by the party requesting such cancellation or postponement.

ARTICLE 9

- 2. In cases of pattern absence, documentation verifying a need for absence due to illness may be requested by the employer when sick time is utilized. Verifiable, original documentation from a physician will be required to be submitted to the supervisor when the employee returns to work. - 3. After 3 consecutive days of absence, individuals will be contacted and instructed to call Human Resources and apply for FMLA leave in accordance with Board Policy or discuss other leaves applicable to their absence needs.

B. Employees may utilize up to five (5) sick days per year as Personal days. Two (2) Personal days may be used in two (2) hour increments at the employee's sole discretion. The remaining Personal days may be used subject to operational needs. Employees should notify their supervisor five (5) days in advance when possible.

C. Vacation time may be requested between December 1st and December 20th for the following calendar year. Employees may select days and/or weeks to take during the following year up to their full allotment of vacation. Requests for vacation time will be granted according to operational needs in order of seniority.

Vacation time not designated during this process and requested during the calendar year will be granted subject to operational needs on a first come, first serve basis. Employees will submit a request at least five (5) working days in advance of the vacation days requested.

Requests for vacation made with less than five (5) days' notice may be granted at the employer's discretion.

Rule 1: The employee must make a clear request for union representation before or during the interview. The employee cannot be disciplined in any way for making this request.

Rule 2: After the employee makes the request, the employer must choose from among the following options. The employer must either:

- A. Grant the request and delay questioning until the union representative arrives and has a chance to consult privately with the employee; or
- B. Deny the request and end the interview immediately; or
- C. Give the employee a choice of:
 - 1. Having the interview without representation or
 - 2. Ending the interview.

Rule 3: If the employer denies the request for union representation, and continues to ask questions, it commits unfair labor practice and the employee has a right to refuse to answer. The employer may not discipline the employee for such a refusal.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING
COMMUNICATION WORKERS OF AMERICA, LOCAL 3180
and
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF INDIAN RIVER COUNTY

Wages During Declared Emergency

WHEREAS, the School District of Indian River County (SDIRC) and Communication Workers of America, Local 3180 (CWA) desire to provide fair compensation to Members of the Bargaining Unit (MBUs) during a declared emergency.

“Essential personnel” are defined as MBUs in transportation, food service, clerical/secretarial, custodians and maintenance personnel who volunteer for storm duties per the process outlined in this MOU. Because we are required by law to serve the County by providing emergency shelters, the District reserves the right to require any or all essential personnel to work if there are not enough volunteers. Seniority and specific skill sets needed will be factors of consideration if any mandatory assignment is made.

WHEREAS, during a declared emergency there are three stages: Pre-event Preparation (Group A), Shelter Operations (Group B) and Post-event Recovery (Group C).

Volunteers will be requested for all groups before the beginning of the declared storm season (before May 15 of every year.) Individuals who sign up are committed through the season, or through November 30 or as of the date of the last storm of the season.

The senior-most volunteer to fill a position will be selected first until all positions are filled.

THEREFORE, the parties agree to the following pay practices during a declared emergency. MBUs who work as directed during a “Declared Emergency” will be compensated as follows:

During a state of emergency or imminent threat of disaster, as declared by the Superintendent of Schools (“Declared Emergency”), the following provisions will be implemented after the declaration of an emergency or imminent threat of disaster as declared in compliance with the provisions contained herein:

Pre-event Preparation: At the point in time when the Superintendent of Schools issues a “Declaration of Release” and releases all non-essential personnel from duty, all essential personnel in Group “A” will be paid their normal hourly rate (1.0) and will also receive hazard pay of (2.0) times their hourly rate of pay (“double-time”) for all for hours worked during the period of Pre-event Preparation.

During-event Shelter Operation: Staff assigned to work in designated shelters (Group B) will be paid their regular rate of hourly pay (1.0) and will also receive one time their hourly rate (1.0) for all hours worked, equaling a total of 2.0 (double) rate of pay from time of reporting to a shelter for duty, until being relieved from shelter staffing duty. Sleep/rest time shall not be excluded from total hours worked while in the shelter and it is expected that shelter workers will be on-call to handle emergencies as needed.

Transportation Staff assigned to transport people to and from shelters will be paid their normal hourly rate (1.0) and will receive hazard pay of 1.0 times their hourly rate of pay for all hours worked during shelter operations.

Appendix C. MOU on Hurricanes, Page 2 of 2

Post-event Recovery: Group C (by the direction of the district) will report for recovery operations to reopen schools and facilities. All MBUs assigned to perform Post-event Recovery duties (Group C) will be paid their normal hourly rate 1.0 and will receive hazard pay of (2.0) times their hourly rate of pay for all for hours worked during the period of Post-event Recovery.

Employees sent home by the Superintendent because of an emergency who are not classified as "Essential Personnel" will receive their normal hourly rate. Upon notice that they are to return to work, CWA employees will be paid their normal hourly rate and any additional pay provided for by this MOU will not apply to those CWA employees.

District makeup days:

In the event the District must make up days by adding to the Academic calendar, if this lengthens the work calendar year of any MBU, they shall be paid their regular rate of pay for all hours worked on those days.

This agreement shall remain in place ongoing from this date, until such time as both parties agree to make revisions.
