

Entrusted

A Biblical perspective of Stewardship

Week 6 | Stewarding through the Chaos

Psalms 57

God has called us to be His Steward. We must have a proper understanding of what true biblical stewardship looks like. God is the Owner. I am the Steward.

If you relegate God to anything less than first, you have removed Him from the primacy of active involvement in your life.

DIG IN

Psa. 57:1, ‘Be merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me: for my soul trusteth in thee: yea, in the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge, until these calamities be overpassed.’

Key Truth: God’s glory should be the _____ of our lives, especially in times of uncertainty and chaos.

Chaos teaches us to _____ – vs. 1-6

There’s 3 important principles we see about Trust here:

Trust involves _____ (vs. 1)

Notes: _____

Trust involves _____ (vs. 2-3)

Notes: _____

Trust involves seeing God as _____ my problems (vs. 4-6)

Notes: _____

Chaos teaches us to _____ – vs. 7-11

Did you realize that circumstances change? But one thing that God cannot do is change. David turns his chaos into a moment of trust/prayer followed by a moment of praise.

Praise is a matter of intentional _____ (vs. 7-8)

Vs. 7 – ‘My heart is fixed (steadfast), O God, my heart is fixed: I will sing and give praise.’

Notes: _____

Praise is testifying to others of God’s _____ (vs. 9-11)

9 I will praise thee, O Lord, among the people: I will sing unto thee among the nations.

10 For thy mercy is great unto the heavens, and thy truth unto the clouds. 11 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: let thy glory be above all the earth.

Notes: _____

David saw the chaos and chose to TRUST, and his trust turned to PRAISE!

Praise is all there is of me responding to all I know of Him.

Core Truth: God’s glory will always be the aim of a Biblical Steward, even in times of _____ and _____.
