

Dear Juice Newton Fans!

☞ Merry Christmas and a very Happy New Year to one and all! Without your loyal support, the great music and voice of Juice Newton would not have been heard across the nation!

☞ Here at Juice Newton Fan Club Headquarters, we have been collecting articles written about Juice, and published in magazines and newspapers across the country. These articles have been written by music critics and reviewers, whose business is to let the public know about entertainers and their product. We want to share with you some excerpts from these articles so you can see how much they agree with you about Juice! We would love to see any reviews that might have appeared in your home town paper!

Country Hits Magazine, Fall 1982:

"By the end of the year, Juice Newton will be one of the top five female singers in the business"--(Kal Rudman, on the Today Show, 2/17/82)....."Last year, I predicted on 'Today' that Juice Newton would be in the top five.....She is now in the top three.....She went around the track twice while the other ladies couldn't get out of the starting blocks.....and I think she is the new champ"----(Kal Rudman, 1982). "Within the space of those two quotes ^{from} Kal Rudman, publisher of "The Friday Morning Quarterback" and generally acknowledged as the number one sage in the music business, flaxen-haired Juice Newton became the reigning queen of both pop and country music. The records literally speak for themselves...."

Marc Brown, Critic for the Tallahassee Democrat 4/9/83.

"While Alabama and the The Thrashers (The Thrasher Brothers) may have made concert goers wish they were in the Heart-of-Dixie state, Juice left them wishing they could go home with her. She bathed the crowd in the pureness of her voice.....a voice that cut through the darkness of the Civic Center like a sword and could have doubled for a diamond cutter if it had to. Backing her up was an excellent band led by guitarist and longtime collaborator, Otha Young, who, with Chuck Martin filled the gaps between Newton's words with some of the most stinging, yet pleasing, runs possible in the country-pop medium".

☞ ☞ Did you know that Juice is an 'equestrian' and has won many ribbons as an amateur-owner/hunter-jumper, including a 6th place at the 1984 Memorial Day Classic Horse Show, held at the L.A. Equestrian Center. Juice rode her horse "All Regards" in the competition for the benefit of the National Kidney Foundation, for which she is the Celebrity Chairperson. Some of you might have seen her on T.V. speaking on behalf of the Kidney Foundation. Those of you who have purchased her latest album or have seen her in concert have already seen "All Regards" because that is the horse on the cover and inner sleeve of the album, and is also depicted on the side of Juice's equipment truck in a design done by her partner Otha Young on his computer!

USA Today-1983

"Nancy Reagan, singer Juice Newton, and columnist Erma Brombeck have at least one thing in common..... They're among the 10 "Most Influential Women" of the year, assert 1000 sorority sisters at the University of Southern California".

Bob Carlton, Staff Writer-- Birmingham News-4/9/83

"Call it 'Country' call it 'Pop' but most of all call it good".

Tom McEntee, Country Song Roundup Magazine, 4/84.

"Juice Newton comes to the forefront with a high-powered weapon called Dirty Looks (Capitol), which continues to show her off as possibly the most potent of all country music's quick-rising femme fatales.....Landis (producer Richard Landis) has done himself proud with this L.P."

Robert K. Oermann, Country Song Roundup Magazine-5/84

"In February, 1983, in Los Angeles, the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences awarded the prestigious Grammy to Juice Newton for "Best Country Vocal Performance, Female" because of her record "Break it to me Gently".... she's now six smashes into her country stardom: "Angel of the Morning", "Queen of Hearts", "The Sweetest Thing", "Love's Been a Little Hard on Me", "Break it to me Gently", and "Heart of the Night". The silver-throated, golden-mained Juice Newton is as slippery as mercury when it comes to categorizing her musical style. She'd really prefer us all to think of just "Juice Newton music" rather than a particular pigeonhole".

At the WHITE HOUSE--Women's day

Juice Newton, Appointees, and the Red, White, and Blue

An excerpt from the Washington Post--8/27/84

".....Juice is flattered to be invited to the White House for this event", wrote Carla Hall. "I think they were looking for a woman, obviously," Juice said. They may be aware I do a lot of my own business and advocate women in business. I'm proud of the fact that I've worked hardI've been on the road a long time and plan to be on the road a long time." When asked about her music, she said: "I like two kinds of songs, I like songs that touch the heartstrings and I like songs that are just fun. I'm not afraid to do songs that are just silly, toe-tappers, just a release."

⇒ ⇒ Way back in September, Juice, accompanied by Otha and Richard Landis flew back to Boston, Mass. to film a Christmas Special in which she sings a couple of songs. This Special called "The Gift of Song" will be hosted by Dick Van Patton, (you know--"Eight is Enough") his wife and children. Their guests will be Juice (of course), the Gatlin brothers, Amy Grant, Menudo, and Niel Sedaka. The Show will be syndicated by Multimedia and from all indications should be a very enjoyable program.
