Her Story

Cheryl Parker Mouzon the daughter of Robert James Parker and Hazel Gibson Gordon, made her grand entrance into this world on May 10, 1954. Cheryl was one who believed in the power of an education. She was a graduate of Atkins High School and being a lifelong learner, she attended Forsyth Technical Community College, High Point University, and Winston-Salem State University where she earned a bachelor's degree in Sociology. She departed on December 4, 2024.

Well-known for her many years as an Account Tech at Forsyth County Department of Social Services, she also worked in medical records, and spent many years at R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company. The consummate entrepreneur, she was a tax preparer, business owner, Avon representative and explored a vast array of other opportunities to generate income. Most recently, she served as a substitute teacher for Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools. Serving others and volunteering in everything she did was her forever job. Needless to say she dabbled in a little of everything.

She was a lover of the arts in all forms, advocate for the elderly community, committed to education, and helper to those in need. Her passions included: Revelations of Faith, Shepherd's Center, Helping Hands Community Partners, Sister's Share, Sweet Blessings, Atkins Alumni Planning Committee, International Black Theatre Festival volunteer, RiverRun International Film Festival volunteer, WSSU Non-traditional Student Association, and Newborns in Need, just to name a few. She was associated with countless ministries in several churches. She loved to travel and did so at every opportunity.

She was preceded in death by her father, Robert J. Parker, daughter, Tramona Raquel Wells, granddaughter, Zakeri Ayanni Mouzon, nephew, Darnell Harrell and companion, George Douglas Berrow.

Forever In Our Hearts

I'm There Inside Your Heart

*Right now I'm in a different place
And though we seem apart
I'm closer than I ever was,
I'm there inside your heart.*

*I'm with you when you greet each day
And while the sun shines bright
I'm there to share the sunsets, too
I'm with you every night.*

*I'm with you when the times are good
To share a laugh or two,
And if a tear should start to fall
I'll still be there for you.*

*And when that day arrives
That we no longer are apart,
I'll smile and hold you close to me,
Forever in my heart.*
