To My Son

I had to accept what I could not change;

It was the master's will;

A light from my house is gone;

A voice I loved is still.

Free from all cares and sorrows;

Rest where none weeps;

*The memory of you, my son,
is the only thing I can call my own.*

Loving You So Much!

Obituary

To God be the Glory for the things He has done, for He hears the cries of His children and will not allow them to suffer any more than they can bear.

Tuesday morning, August 16, 2021, God saw fit to call Darryl Moore Scott home at the age of 61. He was born on December 23, 1959 to the late Irvin E. Scott and Shirley Moore.

At an early age, Darryl moved to Richmond, Virginia where he attended the public schools and graduated from Armstrong High School in 1978. He furthered his education at John Tyler Community College in Mortuary Science. After moving to Columbus, Ohio, Darryl graduated from Ohio School of Cosmetology and Kaplan University where he was awarded an Associate Degree in Paralegal Studies. While at Kaplan, he maintained honors status and was always listed on the Dean's List. At Data Tech, where he was employed, he was loved by all.

Darryl was blessed with many talents: cook, decorator, barber, singer and architect. He built houses out of cardboard and designed each floor with furniture. Darryl sang in musicals, one entitled "Charlie Brown In The City". Additionally, he collected very expensive model cars.

Darryl was preceded in death by his father, Irvin E. Scott.

He leaves to cherish their memories, his mother, Shirley Moore; brother, Jannil Moore, Jr.; step-father, Jannil Moore, Sr.; devoted friend, Paul Miller; son, Jaylon Jones; his dog, Colby; loving and devoted aunt, Thelma McCoy; many cousins, other relatives and friends.
