

Stephen Petree

Before the age of 17, Stephen Petree was signed by Geffen Records, Giant Records and signed to Radio Corporation of America Records (RCA). While at RCA, he released two compact discs, had a top 50 Billboard Pop Hit, a top 60 Billboard Pop Hit, and top 50 Billboard Rhythm & Blues (R&B) Hit.

Stephen went on to record four independent rock compact discs in a group with his brother, Chad. In the mid 90's, they played hundreds of shows in and around Oklahoma City, as well as receiving consistent local radio play.

In the early 2000's, Stephen, Chad and Jeremy Dawson co-founded a rock alternative electronica band that was quickly signed to Universal Records resulting in commercial success with radio, record sales and TV/film licensing. Stephen was one of the main writers for their Grammy nominated album.

Stephen has led worship consistently through all the mentioned music endeavors for over 20 years. He operates a project studio in Valencia CA where he produces, writes, and records music for TV, film, and is consistently pouring into the next generation by teaching and discipling them to "go" into the world with their art and make a difference for the sake of Christ.
