Memories

*Life can never stay the same
No matter how we try
Our hands can never stop
The clock of life from ticking by
But love remains, unchanging
In the care of sorrowing hearts
For as the love of life is stilled
The love of memory starts.*

Obituary

Reginald Denard Bohannon was born to the late Joe Fleming and Inez B. Key on July 12, 1960. He departed this earthly life on Friday, July 8, 2022.

He received Christ at an early age and was baptized at Friendship Baptist Church in 1974. In his youth, he was a member of the youth choir and participated in other church activities with his family.

Reginald spent much of his life between Winston-Salem, NC and Detroit, MI. He eventually settled in Winston-Salem, renewed his membership at Friendship and helped to create the prison ministry. Reginald remained faithful unto the Lord throughout his life.

For more than 34 years, Reginald was married to Aleane Morris Bohannon. During that time, they made and shared many family memories. He had many talents and was known for his handiness and hard work ethic.

Those who preceded him in death include: his father, Bobby Key; his son, Corey Denard Warren; two stepsons, Anthony Morris, Sr. and Charles Samuels, Sr.; and brother, Bobby Key, Jr.

“Reggie” leaves to cherish his memories, his wife, Aleane Morris Bohannon; his two children, Kim Rochelle Huling and Jawan Denard Hayes; grandchildren; sisters, Tandra Key-Wilson, Barbara Key White (Joseph), Veronica McKelvy (Eric), Brenda Key-Barbour (Raymond), Debra Fleming and Valeria Jackson; brother, Damon Key (Yukema); sisters-in-law, Betty Morris and Linda Morris; brothers-in-law, George Morris (Lewellyn) and Jasper Horton (Angela); an aunt, Clee Barren; an uncle, Jerome Key; and a host of cousins, relatives, and friends.
