

TRANSPORTATION FOUNDATION OF LOS ANGELES

TFLA SURVEYOR INTERN (Paid)

DESCRIPTION

This internship position is in a municipal setting, based in Los Angeles.

Required Knowledge and Skills:

- Professional techniques in surveying and measuring property boundaries
- Recording data or relevant characteristics of land and property
- Communication Skills
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team

General Assignments and Projects:

- Preparation of cost data, charts, maps, records, plots, and documents related to surveys
- Verify accuracy of Survey Data
- Work with engineers and other team members cohesively and in professional manner
- Work on live projects in City of Los Angeles using Surveying techniques and skills

Currently enrolled students with a 3.0 minimum GPA are encouraged to apply by sending a resume, and a copy of your unofficial transcript verifying GPA. Send applications to TFLAinternships@gmail.com.

SALARY: $22-23/HR

HOURS: 15-29 HRS/WEEK

LOCATION: Downtown Los Angeles

DESIRED CLASS LEVEL(S): Students must be enrolled in accredited Surveyor program

QUALIFICATIONS: Surveyor students enrolled in accredited program with minimum of six months until graduation

Contact info:

Alan Monkawa
Director of Programs
Transportation Foundation of Los Angeles
201 N. Figueroa St.
Los Angeles CA, 90012
(626)432-7217 office
TFLAinternships@gmail.com
Website: TFLA.US