Pearl Theo Dumas was a Jamaican immigrant that worked as a Registered Nurse for over 40 years. She was one of nine children. Her father was a pastor, and her mother was a seamstress.

Pearl graduated from high school at age 16 and completed college at age 20 with a teaching diploma. Her kindness, thoughtfulness, empathy, and faith guided her path to the medical field. She completed her preliminary nursing training at Kingston Jamaica General Hospital and was admitted to the General Nursing Council for Jamaica. During her career, Pearl's passion for nursing enabled her to work as a registered nurse in pediatrics, OBY/GYN, ICU, and public health at locations in Jamaica, Canada, New York, and California. She retired as the director of nursing at a San Francisco Hospital. Pearl maintained her nursing credentials after retiring and opened and operated a residential care facility in San Francisco for several years before retiring for a second time.

Pearl passed away in July 2020 at age 95. After her death, her family established a scholarship in honor of Pearl's commitment to nursing and desire to help educate new nurses. The criteria for this scholarship is based on Pearl's passion for nursing and her aspiration to help educate low-income persons that want to become a nurse.
