

HOLIDAY NEWSLETTER 2001

Holiday Greeting from Juice!

"Dear Fans:

Hold the ones you love a little longer, look to the heavens with more wonder, and know we are not alone .A Merry Christmas to us all."

Love,

Juice

HAPPY HOLIDAYS to everyone! What a fabulous year this has been for Juice. Although there has been a lot of negative events going on in the world the past few months, we can always rely on the wonderful sound of Juice's music to take our minds off of it for a while.

DVD/CD

This new DVD/CD project is still in the stages of being completed. As I stated in the last newsletter, it was a very special night 9/10/01 not only for Juice but for all fans in attendance for the taping of this event. The projected release is the spring of 2002. Should you catch Juice in concert before the release of the new DVD/CD, you can hear her sing "Your Heart Is Showing" & "All Roads Lead Back To You" and these are fabulous songs that were performed during the taping. Send in your thoughts of these songs as you hear them.

SITES OF INTEREST

Thanks to Fan Club members who continue to write in about Internet Sites featuring Juice.

The first site is called "Famous Birthdays and Events in February." The URL is <http://www.freebiesnfriends.com/02.html>. This is a very interesting fact based site. Jody Stivers a Fan Club member wrote in about a site you can go to at www.rollingstone.com. You may go there and type in Juice's name. There you will find trivia and message boards and concert/album reviews. (Thanks again Jody!)

A fun site of interest is <http://www.geocities.com/tonytranfa/index.html>. Here there is an interesting tid-bit of information about "Angel of The Morning." It reads...Who was the original singer of the song "Angel of the Morning"? Was it Stevie Nicks...Joan Jett... Carly Simon? This has been driving me nuts! The original of "Angel of the Morning" was done by MERRILEE RUSH AND THE TURNABOUTS in 1968 -- got to Number 7 on the charts. A female singer named JUICE NEWTON did a popular remake in 1981. That's the version a lot of people remember now. It made it up to Number 4. Coincidentally, the tune was written by CHIP TAYLOR, the brother of actor JON VOIGHT.

February is the most romantic month of the year. Not only is Valentine's Day on February 14th but Juice's birthday is February 18th! Want to know about other famous birthdays and events? Go to http://exitstital.gopher.com/exitpage/index_hm.html. You will find Juice is listed there.

Juice is also featured at a site about the women of the 80's. The address is <http://80music.about.com/library/weekly/aa031000i.htm>.

Featured next is a great article about Juice. It can be found at http://www.lvrj.com/lvrj_home/2001/Feb-09-Fri-2001/weekly/15236865.html.

There has been a lot of interest in a compilation of Juice's videos. Unfortunately, there is only "one" package that features Juice and one of her videos. Point your web browser to the following web address...

<http://www.musicvideodistributors.com/pressrelease/9501-9DVD.html>. You will find a new DVD with Juice's "Love's Been A Little Bit Hard On Me" video.

Quotable Quotes

Jim said, "Hi,

Tonight, my wife and I were treated to a terrific performance at the Casino Rama entertainment center. We thoroughly enjoyed your show, and listened to one of your cd's on the trip back to our home. Please include Pam and Jim Morrison as members of your fan club. We have always enjoyed your music and the ability that you have to control your voice over such a range. We also found you to be quite personable with the audience as well. Keep up the great work!!"

Sincerely, Jim Morrison

Martin said, "My wife is a "southern lady" from NC and introduced me to country music, then I discovered Juice who is another dimension!"

CONGRATULATIONS!

Fan Club Member Dan Crum is the winner of the JNFC jacket. Dan sent in his essay of why he is Juice's biggest fan. Read what he had to say below.

"Juice Newton's musical appeal breaks through all barriers of time and space. Her admirers include the very young to those who have seen many changes in popular music throughout their lifetimes. I have encountered many fans in this country and abroad who realize and appreciate her amazing gift. Juice can convey more emotion in a three-minute song than most singers can generate in an album full of ballads. I am aware of many instances when Juice's music and crystal clear angelic voice have given comfort to those in need.

Then my granddad died a few years back I picked out several Juice songs that I felt would soothe my grandmother in her time of sorrow. Among the tunes were "For Believers", and "Stand by Me Jesus". I can't express in words how much this music meant to her. I literally saw the hope and life return to her face after listening to this "musical poetry", as she called it.

On another occasion I saw Juice's appeal to an entirely different generation. On a road trip that I was taking with my 13 year old niece and 11 year old nephew, (who are not well known for getting along for extended periods of time) I decided to bring along some Juice music to help us pass the time. I am proud to say that I won over two new Juice fans on that trip, plus, miracle of miracles, they did not fight or argue at all. They were totally into the music. Their favorites were "Goin' to Work", "Ask Lucinda", & "They Never Made it To Memphis"

One of my favorite vacation stories involves a trip to London's' famous Portabello Road huge outdoor flea market. I came across a vendor from Japan who was selling CD's. He had a copy of "Old Flame" and we got to talking when he saw me pick it up. Turns out he is a huge fan and quickly let me know that the only reason he was selling this copy was because he had three more at home. He had already planned for the eventuality that he would wear out several discs.

I have personally experienced Juice's vast appeal to all generations, nationalities, and anyone who appreciates a superb voice. Juice's music can lead you through a "Trail of Tears" or calm you if you're "Headin' for a Heartache". She's the "Sweetest Thing", the "Queen of Hearts" and the greatest vocal artist of them all. For all of these reasons I am proud to say that I am, and will always be, the biggest Juice Newton Fan.”

Three parties judged the entries for the contest. It was so nice to read about how much Juice's music means to everyone.

2001 In Retrospect

The JNFC received its official logo. The logo is that of the original JNFC but has been slightly modernized. Thank you to Mr. Otha Young for helping out with the artwork on this.

There was one show in particular this past year that sounded very impressive. The best show in my opinion was the DVD/CD taping on 9/10/01. However, Brenda Young (Otha's Wife) wrote about another show. This article was mentioned in the Summer Newsletter originally.

“Juice performed a 2 hour concert on Father's Day for the prestigious outdoor Summer Concert Series in Woodland Hills. CA. Juice and the band put on a terrific show attended by an estimated crowd of 2500-3000 concert revelers. The Chairman of the Board was in attendance and reported that "Juice put on the best show we've ever had here"!”

This past year Juice could be found performing everywhere from San Juan Capistrano CA to Massachusetts. Where does she get the energy? Where else...the energy comes from the fans!

Things to Ponder by Paul

The year 2001 has held very positive and negative feelings for everyone around the world. Perhaps the most devastating were the terrorist attacks on the United States 9/11/01. The night prior to that Juice Fans had enjoyed the taping of Juice's new project. Personally, I chose to fall back on that evening. It helped me cope with the tragedy.

Now, with our nation healing, it's time to move on to happier times and show everyone why we are proud to be Americans. Also, it's important to show that nobody anywhere will be intimidated by such cowardly acts.

I would like every Fan Club Member to know how much I have enjoyed bringing you the news about Juice this past year. I enjoyed meeting and talking with many of you.

TO JUICE

Juice, you continue to receive great support through the Fan Club. I, on behalf of the Fan Club Members would like to wish you, Tom and Jessica and Tyler a "Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!"

TO OTHA & THE BAND

The great work the band does year round is very much appreciated! Otha, the Fan Club Members wish you and Brenda and Makenna Happy Holidays! Jay and Steve and Aundrey & Richard, the best wishes to you and yours this joyous season!!

IN THE END

That's all the news this time around. The JNFC website will be under going a major facelift! The new interface will be easier to read and navigable capabilities will be improved. The original website will go off line after Christmas. However, there will be a construction notice informing everyone of this change. My email address will not be affected. The new website will be online in January of 2002!!

Happy Holidays everyone! May God bless us all!!

All the best,

Paul, Juice, Otha
