Obituary

Anthony Wayne Mitchell, the son of Ralph Mitchell and Gertrude Spann Mitchell, was born on June 10, 1953 in Winston-Salem, North Carolina where he loved his family and his community. On February 19, 2026, having been guided by his faith, completed his race.

He received his formal education in the Winston-Salem/Forsyth School System, attended Atkins High School and was a proud member of the “1972 Class that Never Was”. After the closing of Atkins as a high school, he enrolled at North Forsyth High School where he graduated in 1972.

He held membership with Great Commission Community Church Inc. under the leadership of Apostle Gloria M. Samuels. There he used his talents and his willingness to serve to enhance the ministry.

He loved to read the Winston-Salem Journal which was ideal since his vocation was that of a press operator with the city’s major newspaper. He retired from the Journal after many years of service. When he was not with family and friends, enjoying K&W or Forsyth Seafood, he enjoyed keeping his yard cut, cleaning his cars, and watching sports, especially football. Many would say the Carolina Panthers or Kansas City Chiefs were his favorite teams.

He was known for his stylish dress and distinguished look, usually topped off with one of his many Kangol hats. His cars were like accessories that completed his look and were always as immaculate as he was.

Anthony was preceded in death by his parents, Ralph and Gertrude Mitchell; his sisters, Linda, Barbara and Beverly; brother, Milton; and niece, Monique.

He leaves behind one son, Trayvon; stepdaughters, Nicole and Jasmine; sister, Gwendolyn; nieces, Tonya (Michael) and Jamicka (Demeterius); nephews, Kevin, James (Laura), and Michael; great-nieces, Taylor, Jazzmia, and Britneé; great-nephews, Quishon, Kameron, Andrew and Bryson; great great-nephews, Evan, Tristian and Lucien; old school master barber, John Dyer; and a host of other relatives and friends.

To Dad, With Love

That Man is a Success

That man is a success
who has lived well,
laughed often and loved much;
who has gained the respect of intelligent men and women and the love of children;
who has filled his niche and
accomplished his task;
who leaves the world better than he found it,
who has never lacked appreciation of Earth’s beauty or failed to express it;
who looked for the best in others,
and gave the best he had.

-Robert Louis Stevenson
