TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The widow of Zarephath had only a handful of flour and a little oil, but made a little cake for Elijah (1 Kings 17:10-16).

Psalm — Praise the Lord, my soul! (Psalm 146).

Second Reading — Christ will appear a second time to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him (Hebrews 9:24-28).

Gospel — Beware of those who like to go around in long robes and accept greetings in the marketplaces and places of honor at banquets (Mark 12:38-44 [41-44]).

November 7 - THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

November 9 - The Dedication of The Lateran Basilica

November 10 - St. Leo the Great, Pope, Doctor of the Church

November 11 - St. Martin of Tours, Bishop

November 12 - St. Josaphat, Bishop, Martyr

November 13 - St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, Virgin

Basilica of Saint John Lateran, this feast commemorates the dedication of San Giovanni in Laterano, the first Catholic Basilica of Rome, consecrated on this date in 324 by Pope Sylvester as the Church of the Most Holy Savior. The Lateran Basilica is the episcopal seat of the Pope. Pope Clement XII (Pope 1730-1740) declared it, "this Basilica is the Mother and Head of all Churches in Rome and in the World."

Saint Leo the Great was elected Pope in 440. His letter, known as the Tome to Flavian, was read and adopted at the Council of Chalcedon (451), it authoritatively taught the Church's faith in Jesus Christ having two natures, human and divine. Leo's preaching stirred his people to greater faith in Christ and to care for Christ's poor.

Saint Martin of Tours was born in present-day Hungary; while serving in the Roman army he met a poor, half-clothed man outside the city gates, Martin drew his sword and divided his own cloak in two, giving half to the naked man. That night, he saw Jesus in a vision: "Martin, who is still but a catechumen, gave me this robe," our Lord told the angels. After this, he "flew to be baptized"; he founded the first monastery in the West.

Saint Josaphat born in Poland, raised Ukrainian Orthodox, becoming a Basilian monk of the Ruthenian Rite; Bishop of Polotsk; his fidelity to the Roman See and his desire for union between the Ukrainian Church and Rome led to his murder; he is the first formally canonized saint of the Eastern Rite; he died in 1623.

Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini took private religious vows at age twenty-seven, adding "Xavier" to her name in honor of the great Jesuit missionary to the East; in 1880, she founded the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart. Responding to the plea for aid to Italian immigrants, When asked to open a hospital, Frances pleaded her ignorance of health care. The Blessed Mother appeared to her in a dream tending the sick. "I am doing the work you refuse to do," she told Frances. Frances founded Columbus Hospital in Chicago. In twenty-eight years, she founded sixty-seven schools, orphanages, convents, and hospitals in the United States and beyond. She died in 1917.

Brothers and Sisters,

During the month of November, we remember and honor all those who have preceded us in death, especially those who have passed away this past year.

Today's readings portray generosity through the lives of two widows. The loss of their husbands brings both emotional and financial pain. One widow has no food except a small amount of flour and a little oil. The other widow has no money except two small coins. However, each story illustrates the genuine self-sacrificing nature of giving. Each of the widows was willing to offer what little she had to God's work.

In our first reading from First Kings, Elijah, one of the greatest prophets of the Old Testament, makes his first appearance in the bible in the midst of a terrible drought and famine. God sends him out on a mission to persuade the Canaanite people, who have lost their faith in God and have begun to worship Baal, the Canaanite God, to repent. The Queen wants to kill Elijah, yet he proceeds headlong into a place of danger simply on the word of the Lord that he would protect, care and provide for Elijah. Upon entering the city, Elijah asks a poor widow for food and water who with what little she had, was about to prepare a last meal for she and her son, and then die. Elijah in turn tells her and her son they are not to die as a result of the drought and famine. The woman had no reason to believe the word of a stranger who was a prophet of God, an enemy of her God Baal and queen, but she did. In doing so, she risked everything she had, her life and her son's life, on the word of this stranger. She put her faith in Yahweh and as a result, God provided for all her needs. She was and is an icon of faith and trust.

Today's gospel reading opens with Jesus' remarks about the scribes. People deferred to the scribes because of their status as learned theologians. They invited and enjoyed the special attention. The Talmud (Hebrew word for "study" is the record of rabbinic teachings and explains in great detail how the commandments of the Torah are to be carried out) insisted that when two people met in public, the person learned in law should be greeted by the other person first. The scribes enjoyed putting on showy displays of piety and prayer. It was no secret that they treated the poor and the marginalized unfavorably.

At this time in history, women were entirely dependent on their fathers or husbands. Their status was on par with slaves and children. A widow with no father or male to take care of her was among the most vulnerable in society. The widow in today's gospel is no doubt set apart as a contrast to the false piety of the scribes that Jesus has just chastised. The woman comes and places her two small coins in the treasury. These coins were the smallest Roman coin in circulation perhaps worth half a penny and often referred to as "a mite." The wealthy were generous in their giving but from their excess, while the poor widow gave out of her poverty. She, like the widow in our first reading, gave everything she had-her entire livelihood. They gave it all to God, trusting God's divine care completely.

Here's my final thought: True generosity is not about us. It focuses on others. It allows a cry for help to melt our hearts in compassion. Sometimes we need to be reminded that what we do for the least of our brothers and sisters, we do for Him.

A PRAYER FOR VETERANS DAY

Lord God, Almighty Father, creator of mankind and author of peace,
as we are ever mindful of the cost paid for the liberty we possess, we ask you to bless the members of our armed forces.
Give them courage, hope and strength.
May they ever experience your firm support, gentle love and compassionate healing.
Be their power and protector,
leading them from darkness to light.
To you be all glory, honor and praise, now and forever.
Amen.

Living Stewardship Now

A simple guideline for giving money each year:

1. Decide what portion of your income truly expresses your gratitude to God.
2. Of that total, set aside 50 percent to give to your parish in the offertory collection.
3. Give 10 percent of the total to your diocesan annual appeal.
4. Donate the other 40 percent to the charities and good causes you favor.

Respect Life & Pastoral Care

There will be a second collection next weekend, November 13 & 14, 2021 for the support of Diocesan Sanctity of Human Life Programs.

This is an annual opportunity to contribute to the life-saving work of our Diocesan Respect Life & Pastoral Care Ministry. Your gift can make a difference and help save lives throughout our community.

With your donation you can help support the Diocesan Sanctity of Human Life programs to:

Open the doors of the Church to mothers, fathers and babies in need. Provide formation, inspiration and leadership development, bring compassion & reconciliation, be an advocate, support holy, healthy & happy marriages, and embrace our dying.

Thank you for your donation!

VINCENTIAN CORNER

Adopt-a-Family for Christmas

Each year at Christmas time, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul adopts several of the families whom we have visited throughout the year by providing Christmas gifts for the children and food for the families. We also provide slippers, toiletry items and toilet paper for many of our senior clients who are not able to afford these items due to their limited finances.

Thanks to your contributions last year, the SVdP 2020 Christmas Adopt-a-Family program successfully adopted 26 families, including 49 children, 16 adults and 8 senior citizens. The families are extremely grateful when the SVdP volunteers arrive with the wrapped gifts and food for the holidays. Please call 683-0800 ext. 17 if you are interested in adopting one of our families for Christmas. Please leave your name and phone number and a SVdP volunteer will return your call. If you are not able to adopt a family on your own, but would like to make a contribution, please include a note with your donation payable to St. Vincent de Paul and drop in the Sunday collection basket. Food and toiletry items may be deposited in the metal bins at the side and rear doors of the church. Please keep our St. Vincent de Paul clients and volunteers in your prayers. Thank you for your generous support.

National Vocation Awareness Week
© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

National Vocation Awareness Week will be celebrated in our country November 7-13, 2021.

Please ask Our Lord for more dedicated, holy priests, deacons, and consecrated men and women.

May they be inspired by Jesus Christ, supported by our faith community, and respond generously to God's gift of vocation.

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call.

May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen

Message from the Parish Office

The Mass Intentions Book for Year 2022 will be made available beginning Wednesday, November 3, 2021 by appointment only. Please call the parish office at 951/781-9855 to schedule an appointment. Thank you for your understanding.

VINCENTIAN CORNER

In today's Gospel Jesus tells us: "I want you to observe that this poor widow contributed more than all the others who donated to the treasury. They gave from their surplus wealth, but she gave from her want, all that she had to live on."

Ask yourself "Am I only giving from my surplus wealth?" Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul helps those who are suffering and are able to know God's love and care.

Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please have them call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul at 951-684-7386.

Are you feeling called to join our team of volunteers? Contact Robert Lucero at (951) 784-7642 for info.

Office of Restorative Justice

The Christmas season is a most stressful time for someone who is incarcerated. As we enter the holiday season, we would like to ask for your help in providing Christmas cards for our incarcerated brothers and sisters.

The Office of Restorative Justice coordinates the distribution of thousands of Christmas cards each year to prisons in our Diocese. We need boxes of new, unsigned Christmas cards (especially Spanish-language cards) which are then given to inmates to send home to their families.

Please no cards that are scented or contain glitter, tassels, ribbons, plastic, pieces that can be removed or musical cards. Also no cards requesting/requiring donations to an organization.

Deadline is Friday, December 3, 2021.

Mail or drop off boxes of cards:

FEAST OF FAITHConcluding Rites

The Prayer after Communion gives us a glimpse of the heavenly banquet, of which we have had a foretaste in the Eucharist. The concluding rites speak of what we are to do with this great gift of God. That includes the parish announcements, which are usually given following the Prayer after Communion. Believe it or not, the announcements, which are not an "official" part of the Mass, have been included in the Mass from as early as the fifth century! The deacon or the homilist—even the bishop—would announce coming liturgical celebrations and encourage the people to participate. Today's parish announcements include opportunities for prayer, service, learning, and community building. They should be succinct and should include only significant events and activities in the life of the parish. But even when they are long and tedious, the announcements (and the parish bulletin) flow out of the concluding rites of the Mass. They offer us ways to live the Eucharist, to become what we have received—the Body of Christ, living and active in our local community.

FAITH FORMATION IS SEEKING NEW CATECHISTS

Do you have just two hours to give on Wednesdays for our Parish children?

The Faith Formation Staff and Parish need YOU to help these children prepare for receiving their Sacraments, learn about our Roman Catholic Traditions, live out the Gospel and journey in our faith together. The rewards are many. Please pray to see if our Lord is calling you to this Ministry. If interested or for questions, please call Olivia, 951-781-9855 x 25.

Please note any adult (ages 18+) working with children on a regular basis as a volunteer will need to follow certain guidelines and training before being allowed to help. Please don't let this turn you away. It's for the safety of all involved.*

Jesús mirando cómo la gente echaba allí sus monedas a las alcancías. Muchos ricos daban en abundancia. En esto, se acercó una viuda pobre y echó dos moneditas de muy poco valor.

MARCOS 12:41-42

TRIGESIMO SEGUNDO

Domingo del
Tiempo Ordinario

7 de noviembre de 2021

HACIA EL FIN DE LA HISTORIA

En este año parece que las Escrituras del Leccionario no sólo refuerzan la tradición católica de este mes de noviembre por la oración de nuestros seres queridos difuntos, sino que también se unen a las tormentas de la naturaleza y a la pandemia, así como a los violentos desastres de la humanidad para recordarnos que nos dirigimos inexorablemente hacia el fin de la historia, tanto del mundo como de la nuestra. La lectura del Antiguo Testamento de hoy nos prepara para una escucha fructífera del Evangelio. El principal desafío que nos plantea es una fe indudable que impulsa a la entrega total de uno mismo. Esa lección se nos ofrece con una urgencia que coincide con el motivo escatológico de noviembre: el Fin y el Juicio. Se presentan dos viudas, la viuda de Sarepta del Antiguo Testamento y la viuda del templo del Evangelio. Ambas ejemplifican a personas llenas de fe que dan tranquilamente lo que no pueden pagar: todo, para la gloria de Dios y al servicio de los demás.

SE EXIGE UNA GRAN FE

Rápidamente llegamos a admirar a la viuda del Antiguo Testamento a la que Elías pide ayuda. La viuda de Sarepta sólo lleva “leña” para cocinar sus limitados recursos, “un puñado de harina y un poco de aceite”, cumpliendo con su responsabilidad personal, “para mí y para mi hijo” (1 Reyes 17:12). La petición de Elías exige una gran fe y abnegación por parte de esta pobre viuda, ya que proporcionar esos cuidados vitales a un profeta “extranjero” pone en gran riesgo la supervivencia de la viuda y de su hijo: su religión es la adoración del falso ídolo del paganismo, Baal; su rey es el padre de Jezabel y de Ajab, a quienes Elías enfureció declarando que Dios había decretado una sequía para castigarlos por corromper a Israel con el culto a Baal de Jezabel. Elías hace explícito el riesgo de la viuda al prometer que su harina y su aceite no faltarán por el poder del “Señor, el Dios de Israel (¡no de su dios, Baal!)” (17:14). Por lo tanto, se exige fe tanto al que da, la viuda, como al que pide, Elías.

DON DE ABNEGACIÓN

El episodio del Evangelio de hoy tiene lugar justo después de que Jesús entre en Jerusalén, inmediatamente antes de su Pasión. Con confianza y abnegación, como la viuda de Sarepta y la viuda que Jesús ve en el templo, Jesús lo dará todo por nuestra redención. Así, Jesús subraya de la viuda que ve que su entrega es sin reservas: “de su pobreza, todo lo que tenía, todo su sustento” (Marcos 12:44). Y, sin duda, Jesús se vio a sí mismo y a su entrega en ella y en su entrega. En el siguiente capítulo de Marcos, Jesús predice la caída de este mismo templo. Así que la donación sin reservas de la viuda de lo que no podía pagar debió de parecerle a Jesús tanto una victimización por parte de los demás como, al final, un regalo inútil: el edificio controlado por la manipulación de los escribas estaba destinado a la destrucción. La donación de ella se convirtió en una vívida prefiguración de su propia victimización por parte de otros en la entrega sin reservas de su propia vida, que a muchos les parecería un regalo inútil, pues Jesús moriría y sería enterrado. Sólo los verdaderos discípulos de Jesús —nosotros— creemos que, por su resurrección, Jesús se ha convertido en la piedra angular del nuevo edificio, la Iglesia, que sustituye a aquel templo derruido. Por lo tanto, debemos hacer nuestra propia entrega a Dios en nuestro incesante regalo de amor abnegado a los demás hasta que Jesús vuelva.

LECTURAS DE HOY

1 Reyes 17:10-16
Salmo 146 (145):7, 8-9, 9-10
Hebreos 9:24-28
Marcos 12:38-44 [41-44]

FIESTA DE LA FE

La Eucaristía es nuestro banquete

La Eucaristía es una celebración de hermanos y hermanas a la que se acude a participar, no a ver. Vamos a ella a comer y a beber algo muy especial, con una actitud muy especial. La celebración plena y total de este sacramento se da solamente cuando se participa plena y totalmente en este banquete. No es como quien va a una fiesta de cumpleaños y, al invitarle a pasar a la mesa dice: “Yo sólo vine a ver, muchas gracias”. Pero la Eucaristía no es algo mágico, es divina, no mágica; no obra en nosotros a menos de que participemos en ella como se espera que lo hagamos. Vamos a ella no a manifestar lo que no somos, sino a reafirmar lo que somos, hijos e hijas de Dios, por eso es banquete gozoso. Vamos a dar gracias por lo que Dios ha hecho en nosotros, por lo que queremos que haga. Vamos a sentarnos a la mesa para compartir de un mismo pan y celebrar la misma alegría: que Cristo se hace pan para que todos comamos; que se hace vino para que todos bebamos. Coman y beban.

LA RESPONSABILIDAD VIVIDA AHORA

Una guía para dar dinero todos los años:

1. Decide qué porción de tus ingresos verdaderamente expresa tu gratitud a Dios.
2. De ese total aparta un 50 por ciento para poner en el ofertorio de tu parroquia.
3. Dale un 10 por ciento del total a la apelación anual de tu diócesis.
4. Dona el 40 por ciento restante a las obras de caridad y otras causas justas de tu predicación. Copyright © 2011, World Library Publications.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — El profeta Elías pide a una viuda pobre que le dé algo de beber y un poco de pan. Cuando ella compartió, su escasez fue saciada (1 Reyes 17:10-16).
Salmo — El Señor siempre es fiel a su palabra (Salmo 146 [145]).
Segunda lectura — Cristo se sacrificó una sola vez para borrar todos los pecados de los hombres (Hebreos 9:24-28).
Evangelio — El óbolo de la viuda de unos cuantos centavos es mucho más grande que todas las otras donaciones porque en su pobreza, ha dado todo lo que tenía para vivir (Marcos 12:38-44 [41-44]). INFORMACIÓN LITÚRGICA

7 de noviembre - TRIGÉSIMO SEGUNDO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

9 de noviembre - Dedicación de la Basílica de Letrán

10 de noviembre - San León Magno, Papa y doctor de la Iglesia

11 de noviembre - San Martín de Tours, Obispo

12 de noviembre - San Josafat, Obispo y mártir

13 de noviembre - Santa Francisca Javier Cabrini, virgen

Basílica de San Juan de Letrán, esta fiesta conmemora la dedicación de San Juan de Letrán, la primera basílica católica de Roma, consagrada en esta fecha en el año 324 por el Papa Silvestre como Iglesia del Santísimo Salvador. La Basílica de Letrán es la sede episcopal del Papa. El Papa Clemente XII (Papa 1730-1740) la declaró: "esta Basílica es la Madre y la Cabeza de todas las Iglesias de Roma y del Mundo".

San León Magno fue elegido Papa en el año 440. Su carta, conocida como el Tomo a Flaviano, fue leída y adoptada en el Concilio de Calcedonia (451), y enseñó con autoridad la fe de la Iglesia en que Jesucristo tenía dos naturalezas, la humana y la divina. La predicación de León impulsó a su pueblo a una mayor fe en Cristo y a cuidar de los pobres de Cristo.

San Martín de Tours nació en la actual Hungría; mientras servía en el ejército romano se encontró con un pobre hombre medio vestido a las puertas de la ciudad, Martín sacó su espada y dividió su propia capa en dos, dando la mitad al hombre desnudo. Esa noche, vio a Jesús en una visión: "Martín, que aún no es más que un catecúmeno, me ha dado este manto", dijo el Señor a los ángeles. Después de esto, "voló para ser bautizado"; fundó el primer monasterio de Occidente.

San Josafat, nacido en Polonia, criado como ortodoxo ucraniano, convirtiéndose en monje basiliano de rito ruteno; obispo de Polotsk; su fidelidad a la sede romana y su deseo de unión entre la Iglesia ucraniana y Roma le llevaron a ser asesinado; es el primer santo formalmente canonizado de rito oriental; murió en 1623.

Santa Francisca Javier Cabrini tomó los votos religiosos privados a los veintisiete años, añadiendo "Javier" a su nombre en honor al gran misionero jesuita en Oriente; en 1880, fundó las Hermanas Misioneras del Sagrado Corazón. Respondiendo a la petición de ayuda a los inmigrantes italianos, cuando se le pidió que abriera un hospital, Francisca alegó su ignorancia en materia de sanidad. La Virgen se le apareció en un sueño atendiendo a los enfermos. "Estoy haciendo el trabajo que tú te niegas a hacer", le dijo a Francisca. Francisca fundó el Hospital Columbus en Chicago. En veintiocho años, fundó sesenta y siete escuelas, orfanatos, conventos y hospitales en los Estados Unidos y más allá. Murió en 1917.

El Señor siempre es fiel a su palabra, y es quien hace justicia al oprimido; él proporciona pan a los hambrientos.
— Salmo 146 (145):7
