SENIOR FOCUS NEWS

The Senior Leadership Team has obtained 30 tickets to see the "1940s USO Show" at the Jonesborough Repertory Theatre, this Saturday, June 25th, 2-3:30 PM. If you are a senior and would like to attend, please sign up on the form at the table in the lobby. If we have more than 30 to sign up, we will try to get additional tickets. We also have reservations for dinner at the Black Olive restaurant following the show for those who can attend.

Sunday, July 3rd Outreach Event at Heritage

Due to Freedom Hall Civic Center doing their July 4th fireworks show on Sunday, July 3rd, Heritage is moving our outreach event to Sunday, July 3rd. If you would like to serve others by grilling hot dogs, passing out food/bottled water, face painting, etc., please let us know as soon as possible. This is a wonderful opportunity to reach out to our community! You can contact the office.

Free of Me
1 Corinthians 10:23-11:1

First: The Source of Corinthian Trouble

Matthew 22:35-40

1 Corinthians 14:20 - Brothers, do not be children in your thinking. Be infants in evil, but in your thinking be mature.

Second: A Test Case (to prove Paul's point). 25-28

Psalms 24:1 - The earth is the LORD's and the fullness thereof, the world and those who dwell therein

1 Corinthians 8:9-13

The Christian who most enjoys freedom is the Christian who surrenders her/his rights out of love, and not fear.

Third: Three Summary Thoughts. 31-33

Fourth: This Brings us to Jesus

Fifth: The Meaning of the Text

You are your worst taskmaster.

You are your Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, and Roman, all in one.

You are your worst sin.

I am only truly free to Jesus when I am free of me

Romans 7:14-25a

S 'I' N

Conclusion:

V 24 - Let no one seek his own good, but the good of his neighbor.

When our motive is to glorify God and to edify or evangelize others, our decisions will be made in humility and our actions will display grace.

Daily Devotions for 1 Corinthians 10:23-11:1

Monday, June 20th – v 23 - The world certainly has some 'lawful' things that aren't 'helpful' or 'build up.' What makes your list for such things? Take time this week to look at the world and into your life for a 'tune up' on what might be 'lawful' but not 'helpful' to build [you] up' in Jesus.

Tuesday, June 21st – vs 24-26 - What is the basis of v 25 (hint, it's vs 24 & 26)? Take some time to question how Jesus's lordship of the world transform the way we interact with it? Remember, he's the one who could touch a leper and not become leprous, rather heal the leper! Read Jeremiah 29:7 for specific instructions about how you should live in a world that is contrary to God's holiness.

Wednesday, June 22d – v 27 - (Teana's birthday, but don't tell I said so) – vs 27 – What does Paul say about eating with unbelievers? How should this 'stretch' our evangelistic interaction with people who don't hold our values? How would this stretch you?

Thursday, June 23rd –vs 28-30 – How might my eating habits be limited by others? What about any habit? Why do I limit myself? Think: is it possible to have liberty and limit at the same time? (I think Paul says, 'yes' in these verses). Is limiting myself for others, really sacrificing my liberty or am I only really free when I can limit myself?

Friday, June 24th – vs 31-33-11:1 – v 31 - How does limiting myself glorify God? v 32 - How can giving 'no offence' glorify God? According to v 33, what is the ultimate purpose in freedom/limitation? Who dominates your life, thoughts, actions, etc? A Jew? A Gentile? A friend or family member? Or Christ? Is God big enough in your life?
