The Pastor's Thoughts

How often do we pray for things and then forget to give God praise when those prayers are answered? Or how often do we ask others to pray and then not update them on God's powerful work through their prayers? Last month I asked you to pray that we would have the biggest season yet. Last year we had 67 children sign up to play soccer. This year we have 118 registered! We need to give God the praise for answering our prayers and giving us the opportunity to reach out to these children and their families. That means that on Saturdays from April 2 to May 21 we likely have over 300 people here when we share the gospel. This month I want to ask you again to pray for Upward Soccer, that God would change lives through it and that He would give us the grace and help to run things in a way which will bring Him glory and honor.

Praising our Savior, Pastor Pete

HAPPY SAINT PATRICK'S DAY

It's not luck...
it's God's favor.

From the fullness of his grace we have all received one blessing after another.
