Dear Parishioners,

We are a few days away from celebrating Christmas. It is the most joyful time of the year. I wanted to share one of my favorite stories with you.

There is a very moving scene in the musical Fiddler on the Roof when, after the Jewish couples' five daughters were married and had their own families, the husband, now alone again with his wife in their house, asks her, do you love me? The wife, quite surprised with the question of her husband says, "For 25 years, I live with you, I cooked your food, I cleaned your house, I washed your clothes, I gave you five beautiful daughters. After 25 years, you now ask me, Do you love me?" If that's not love, then what is?

One truth expressed so powerfully by the gospel is that love, if it is to be true, is to be seen in deeds.

God loved the world so much that he sent His only son that we might be saved through Him. "Christmas is about celebrating the importance of "being with" each other and with God...His love that translates into action is Emmanuel, God is with us.

So, to everyone this Christmas. I pray that this is a time of enjoying "being WITH each other", and giving thanks for each other as family, friends, and colleagues.

As we gather to celebrate the Nativity of our Lord, we remember that Christmas is not just one day, but something we can celebrate day after day; week after week. As you think about your favorite Christmas song or carol, perhaps it is something you can celebrate on the 25th of every month.

Have a blessed Christmas as you share this time of "being with and giving thanks for the ones you love."

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year,

Father Jose

Blessing of a Christmas Tree The use of the Christmas tree is relatively modern. Its origins are found in the medieval mystery plays that depicted the tree of paradise and the Christmas light or candle that symbolized Christ, the Light of the world. According to custom, the Christmas tree is set up just before Christmas and may remain in place until the Solemnity of Epiphany. The lights of the tree are illuminated after the prayer of blessing.

In the home the Christmas tree may be blessed by a parent or another family member, in connection with the evening meal on the Vigil of Christmas or at another suitable time on Christmas Day.

- When all have gathered, a suitable song may be sung.
  - The leader makes the sign of the cross, and all reply "Amen."
  - The leader may greet those present in the following words:

Let us glorify Christ our light, who brings salvation and peace into our midst, now and forever.
R/. Amen.

In the following or similar words, the leader prepares those present for the blessing:

My brothers and sisters, amidst signs and wonders Christ Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea: his birth brings joy to our hearts and enlightenment to our minds. With this tree, decorated and adorned, may we welcome Christ among us; may its lights guide us to the perfect light.

One of those present or the leader reads a text of sacred Scripture, for example, Titus 3:4 (lines 4-7) or Ezekiel 17:22 (lines 22-24 4; I will plant a tender shoot on the mountain heights of Israel.)

Reader: The Word of the Lord.      R/. Thanks be to God.

The intercessions are then said. The leader says:

Let us ask God to send his blessing upon us and upon this sign of our faith in the Lord.
R/. Lord, give light to our hearts.

That this tree of lights may remind us of the tree of glory on which Christ accomplished our salvation, let us pray to the Lord.      R/.

That the joy of Christmas may always be in our homes, let us pray to the Lord.      R/.

That the peace of Christ may dwell in our hearts and in the world, let us pray to the Lord. R/.

After the intercessions the leader invites all present to say the Lord's Prayer.

The leader says the prayer with hands joined:

Lord our God, we praise you for the light of creation: the sun, the moon, and the stars of the night. We praise you for the light of Israel: the Law, the prophets, and the wisdom of the Scriptures. We praise you for Jesus Christ, your Son: he is Emmanuel, God-with-us, the Prince of Peace, who fills us with the wonder of your love.

Lord God, let your blessing come upon us as we illumine this tree. May the light and cheer it gives be a sign of the joy that fills our hearts. May all who delight in this tree come to the knowledge and joy of salvation. We ask this through Christ our Lord.      R/. Amen.

The lights of the tree are then illuminated.

The leader concludes the rite by signing himself or herself with the sign of the cross and saying:

May the God of glory fill our hearts with peace and joy, now and forever.      R/. Amen.

The blessing concludes with a verse from "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel". —From Catholic Household Blessings & Prayers

BRING THE SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS TO ALL

We all have an opportunity at any time to bring help to people in need. But this is especially so at this time of the year when we commemorate the birth of Christ and His life on earth within the Holy Family that sacrificed much simply to show the mission that everyone should help one another even if it requires some sacrifice on our part. We learn from Scripture, it is better to help the stranger rather than those we expect to get special recognition or something in return. It is our mission to bring the love of Christ to the homeless and other individuals struggling to survive. Our mission needs to help families stay together and grow as self-sustaining and supportive of one another. And our mission is to support the elderly, those who no longer have the strength or resources to care for all their needs as they reach their end zone on earth. That is the work of our SVDP Members but also the work of all who follow Christ's example from His birth to His death and redemption for all mankind. Let us follow His example and help those who cannot fully help themselves.

In the next several weeks our SVDP Members hope to engage others in helping families and individuals with their needs and enough to celebrate the Holydays of Christmas. We can start by bringing special gifts to those we know are in need and to provide transportation so that these same individuals can celebrate Christ's birth with others in Church at this time. Every one of us can probably identify individuals in our own community that may need some help at this and other times throughout the year.

Let us all try to bring the "Spirit of Christmas" to others.

MORE PARISH NEWS

THANK YOU!

“For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me... Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me.” Mt. 25:35-36,40.

This Advent our parish community was given the opportunity to help those in need in the inner-city and locally through the York Food Pantry. Your response was very generous. On behalf of “Brother Jim,” and the York Food Pantry, Fr. Jose and I would like to thank all of you who gave so generously.

May our Father in Heaven bless you all and your families during this holy season.

Merry Christmas,
Deacon Peter
