

Summer Newsletter

Hello everyone and welcome to another edition of the Juice Newton Fan Club Summer Newsletter. Nothing is hotter than information about our favorite recording artist, so here we go...

Touring

The question many have been asking is “When will Juice tour again?” Right now, Juice has decided to extend her break from touring. Juice is fine and extends her love and gratitude to all of her fans while she relaxes from the grind of being on the road. I will inform everyone once I have an update.

New Album

Juice’s break includes the new album. This new project is on hold at this time.

Thank you all for your understanding.

2018 "O" Award

The "O" Award is given to any person or group and or company that makes their community better in any aspect. The award is in honor of Otha Young. Otha was a huge part of Juice Newton's career until his death in 2009. Otha will always be remembered as a very positive person who saw the best in everyone.

The 2018 "O" Award goes to Wanda Fowler Eckoff. Wanda's cause is The Angel Band Project.

Rachel Ebeling is the founder of the amazing cause. The cause is about music helping to heal victims of sexual assault.

Visit their Facebook Page: <https://www.facebook.com/AngelBandProject/><https://www.facebook.com/AngelBandProject/>

Wanda skydives to raise funds to help the The Angel Band Project assist those in need. Wanda has done this for a number of years and assists in other ways when needed.

When the horrible action of sexual assault takes place, the long journey in recovery is so very difficult. Through music, the victims can ease the pain and ease the process by channeling through a therapy that they will enjoy. Perhaps a favorite song as a child or school party.

Wanda's ability to put other's needs first and her dedication to such an important cause is why she was chosen for the "O" Award for 2018. Wanda is a kind understanding person and her vision to assist any and all in need such as The Angel Band Project is so very admirable.

I am very proud of Wanda. She is not only an angel, she is family.

Summer Past

Otha Young and Juice co-wrote a song in 1977 Juice did not record it but the duo The Carpenters did!! The song was entitled “Sweet, Sweet Smile.” The Carpenters rearranged the song and made it up tempo.

Many years later, Juice recorded the song on her CD “The Ultimate Hits Collection.” Juice recorded the song as she had originally arranged it.

Juice began her recording career with RCA Records in 1975. Originally the billing was “Juice Newton & Silver Spur.” Juice never asked to be the lead singer or to be first in the billing.

Mr. Kealey is a member of the Juice Newton Fan Club!!

In 1988 Juice recorded a duet with artist Michael Johnson on his RCA album “That’s That.” The duet was called “It Must Be You” and the harmony is enchanting.

You can listen to the duet here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XQqslRndBsl>

Unfortunately, RCA passed on this track from the album as a single and another track was released instead.
