September 19 - Saint Januarius, Bishop, Martyr

September 20 - Saint Andrew Kim Tae-gŏn, Priest and Saint Paul Chŏng Ha-sang, and Companions, Martyrs

September 21 - SAINT MATTHEW, APOSTLE, EVANGELIST

September 23 - Saint Pius of Pietrelcina, Priest

Saint Januarius a bishop of Benevento, Italy, who perished with his six companions during the Diocletian persecution in the year 305. He is patron saint of Naples, Italy, and Little Italy, New York; in New York he is remembered at the yearly festival of San Gennaro. MAGNIFICAT

Saint Andrew Kim was born in Seoul, Korea. Korean Church arose in the late 18th century after Korean diplomats heard Christ preached by the Jesuits in China and brought Christian tracts home to share with their families and neighbors. Saint Andrew was the first Korean native to be ordained to the priesthood. He was tortured and beheaded along with his lay associate, seminarian Saint Paul Chŏng. Between 1839 and 1867, 103 martyrs gave their lives for the faith in Korea and they were canonized by Pope John Paul II when he visited Korea in 1988. MAGNIFICAT

Saint Matthew one of the Twelve Apostles and author of the first Gospel. Jesus called him as he sat collecting taxes at Capernaum; he is identified with Levi, mentioned in the Gospels of Mark and Luke; in art, he is symbolized by the winged man, one of the four mystical creatures from the Book of Revelation.

Saint Pius (Padre Pio) He was born in 1887 in Pietrelcina, Italy; he was a Franciscan Capuchin priest; renowned as a stigmatist, receiving the visible wounds of Christ in 1918; for fifty years he carried on his priestly ministry at San Giovanni Rotondo, Italy; he died in 1968, and was canonized in 2002

Brothers and Sisters,

On this 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time we celebrate Catechetical Sunday and give thanks for those who teach the faith to others. On this special Sunday may they know the value of what they do. Today's readings show us that holiness and justice go hand in hand. Acting justly towards those who are poor and doing justice in our day-to-day lives are not options. They are an integral part of what it means to be a person of faith, serving the God who is the source of all justice and compassion.

Our first reading introduces us to one of scripture's most vocal prophets on social justice, Amos. Amos set his sights on the social injustice that ran rampant in Israel. Amos was known for his harsh tone and earthly imagery as well as his preaching. He purposefully turned inside-out the beliefs of the self-righteous wealthy Israelites. Amos assured them their treatment of the poor would be their ruin. These self-righteous Israelites claimed a special immunity because God brought them out of Egypt, but Amos retorted that this privilege only made them all the more culpable after they wasted God's special treatment. In our second reading from his First letter to Timothy, Paul says "prayer is essential", not only in individual terms but as the obligation of the whole community. It is important for the common good that we take our responsibility to pray seriously, even when we cannot see the results.

In today's gospel Jesus teaches his disciples an important lesson about wealth. Stewards made a living by collecting rents and debts for their masters and charging the debtors interest on the amount owed, which would then go to the steward's coffers. Here the steward is shameless in the lengths he will go to maintain his position. The steward's behavior in achieving his end calls attention to Jesus' lesson. Anyone of us would go to great lengths, no matter how unsavory, to ensure a secure place in this world, so here is my question to you: How much more should we devote our attention to the world to come? Jesus concludes this parable in verse 13 with the words, "No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon." A Greek translation of the Aramaic word "mammon" means more than wealth and riches, it can signify anything of this world that one relies on: titles, positions, privileges and honors. The true definition of mammon is anything which takes our attention away from God, the true secret of life. It is rare for anyone to be satisfied that they have enough money. The need to be secure can blind us to the needs of others and to the gospel imperative to do justice to those who are poor. The mystic Julian of Norwich tells us that God notices not only great deeds, but also those that are small and simple, because not even the least of our good deeds will be forgotten. Pope Francis teaches us that God invites us to "touch the suffering flesh of Christ in others." If we want to come close to Jesus, the nearest way is through our suffering sisters and brothers.

Faithful

Holy Father's Intention for the month of September 2022: Intention for abolition of the death penalty
We pray that the death penalty, which attacks the dignity of the human person, may be legally abolished in every country.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRYVOTE "NO" ON PROPOSITION 1

Proposition 1 is a worst-case scenario for abortion in California. It is an expensive and misleading ballot measure that allows unlimited late-term abortions — for any reason, at any time, even moments before birth, paid for by tax dollars. Prop 1 isn't needed. Sadly, California already has some of the most permissive abortion laws in the nation that would remain in effect without the amendment, including our current limit on late-term abortions that are permitted only for the life and health of the mother. Prop 1 destroys this common-sense limit. California does not limit state spending on abortion, and with thousands more traveling from other states, the cost will be in the hundreds of millions. Don't hand lawmakers a blank check to pay for abortions, and don't let them make California an "abortion sanctuary."

VINCENTIAN CORNER

In today's Gospel we see that prudent decisiveness means that we recognize that all our choices in daily living are really choices for eternal life. Admission into heaven is something money cannot buy. The only currency that has any value to secure our entrance is that of love.

As you make your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, know that you are a sign of God's love to those who are suffering.

Is there a neighbor or friend of yours who is in temporary need because of a loss of a job or an illness? Please leave a message for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul at 951-684-7386...we want to help!

Have you considered answering the call to help serve the poor by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul? Contact Robert Lucero at (951) 784-7642 for information.

The Fellowship of Catholic Christian Women is beginning a new scripture study:

"NEVER ON SUNDAY: A Look at the Women NOT in the Lectionary"

This scripture study invites us to look at the significant stories of women who are missing from our Sunday readings. These stories were left behind when the lectionary was compiled. Their life stories, circumstances, and witness of faith will never be read aloud on a Sunday or developed in the homily. The stories of these women deserve to be heard and told.

Meetings are on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month, 9:45 a.m. to 12 Noon, at the Youth House, 6956 Nixon Dr., Riverside, CA 92506. Participation is free except for the cost of the book ($29.95)

MINISTERIO DE RESPETO A LA VIDA

VOTE "NO" A LA PROPOSICIÓN 1

La Proposición 1 es el peor de los casos para el aborto en California. Es una medida electoral costosa y engañosa que permite abortos tardíos sin límites – por cualquier motivo, en cualquier momento, incluso momentos antes del nacimiento – a expensas de los contribuyentes.

La Proposición 1 no es necesaria. Lamentablemente, California ya cuenta con políticas de aborto entre las más permisivas del país que seguirían en efecto sin la enmienda, incluso con sus límites importantes para el aborto tardío, que se permite por la vida y la salud de la madre. La Proposición 1 derriba estos límites de sentido común. California no limita el gasto estatal en aborto, y con miles viajando desde otros estados para procurar un aborto tardío, el costo será de cientos de millones. No entregue a los legisladores un cheque en blanco para pagar los abortos y no permita que hagan de California un "santuario del aborto".

San Jenaro, obispo de Benevento, Italia, que pereció con sus seis compañeros durante la persecución de Diocleciano en el año 305. Es patrón de Nápoles, Italia, y de Little Italy, Nueva York; en Nueva York se le recuerda en la fiesta anual de San Jenaro. MAGNIFICAT

San Andrés Kim nació en Seúl, Corea. La Iglesia coreana surgió a finales del siglo XVIII después de que los diplomáticos coreanos escucharan la predicación de Cristo por parte de los jesuitas en China y llevaran folletos cristianos a casa para compartirlos con sus familias y vecinos. San Andrés fue el primer coreano en ser ordenado sacerdote. Fue torturado y decapitado junto con su socio laico, el seminarista San Pablo Chŏng. Entre 1839 y 1867, 103 mártires dieron su vida por la fe en Corea y fueron canonizados por el Papa Juan Pablo II cuando visitó Corea en 1988. MAGNIFICAT

San Mateo, uno de los Doce Apóstoles y autor del primer Evangelio. Jesús lo llamó cuando se sentaba a recaudar impuestos en Cafarnaúm; se le identifica con Leví, mencionado en los Evangelios de Marcos y Lucas; en el arte, está simbolizado por el hombre alado, una de las cuatro criaturas místicas del Apocalipsis.

San Pío (Padre Pío) Nació en 1887 en Pietrelcina, Italia; fue sacerdote capuchino franciscano; reconocido como estigmatizador, recibió las llagas visibles de Cristo en 1918; durante cincuenta años ejerció su ministerio sacerdotal en San Giovanni Rotondo, Italia; murió en 1968, y fue canonizado en 2002.
