

Evangelist Mary Sims

Evangelist Mary Sims is a native of Pineview Georgia. She is a graduate of Wilcox County High School Rochelle Georgia. She began her Christian Journey as a child at Cooks Chapel AME Church. At the age of 16 evangelist Sim's was saved and baptized with the Holy Ghost at Pineview South Church of God.

As a youth Evangelist Sims served faithfully in her Home Church as well as other community churches. She served as an usher, speaker for youth services and started a nursing home Ministry as well.

It has been her life's work and calling to Minister to and empower Women of all ages. She is a retiree of The state of Ga where she was employed for 17 years as a Foster Care and Child Protective Services Social Services Case manager. Prior to that she served as a Job developer for MCAA "Welfare to work Program" and was also an instructor for Bellevue G.E.D Program. She embraces going out into the hedges and the highways to tell a dying world that "Jesus Christ is Lord."

Evangelist Sims answered the call to Ministry in November 2011 and was licensed and ordained in April of 2013.

She served on the Ministerial Staff of Tabernacle of Testimony and in 2016 she founded "Walking by Faith Life Ministries" as an outreach and community resource.

She currently serves on the OLMBC Ministerial staff and as President of the Women's Ministry. She is also Chaplain of "Pressured G.E.M.S. Non profit organization.

Evangelist Sims attended South Georgia College and Macon State College. She also received Theological Training from V.O.J. Word Ministries International.

Evangelist Sims and her husband James have four children: Audrey, Latrece Candice and Gregory. They have six beautiful grand children.

My Favorite Scripture:

Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering for He is Faithful that promised... Hebrews 10:23

Evangelist Mary Sims

BACK