

Together Again

Flower Attendants

Family and Friends

Pall Bearers

Family and Friends

Acknowledgements

With heartfelt gratitude, we thank you for your thoughtfulness and especially your prayers during this challenging time in our lives.
May God continue to bless you as you have blessed us.

The Family

727 North Patterson Avenue
Winston-Salem, North Carolina 27101
336.722.8117
www.clarksbrownandsons.com

Homegoing Celebration

Mrs. Dorothy Evans Perry

August 19, 1936~ October 11, 2024

Thursday, October 17, 2024

11:00 AM

Clark S. Brown & Sons Funeral Chapel

727 North Patterson Avenue
Winston-Salem, North Carolina

Rev. Dr. Dennis Bishop, Officiating

Her Story

Dorothy Ophelia Evans Perry was born on August 19, 1936, in Tobacco-ville, North Carolina, to the late Virgil Evans and Nina Evans.

She matriculated in the Forsyth County School System and graduated from Atkins High School. Afterwards she started her career with and retired from R.J. Reynold Tobacco Company.

She was a lifelong member of Saint Stephens Baptist Church. She was active in planning and eventual move of the church from its original location on Bowen Boulevard to its current home on Pressman Drive.

Dorothy had an avid love of shopping. Additionally she was better known for her amazing cooking skills, especially her cake-baking expertise. Everyone in the community and many organizations looked forward to her specialty cakes. Her biggest passion was that of being a natural and devoted caretaker.

In the community, she was a part of the Sisters of Quality Control of R.J. Reynolds. Her group often enjoyed dressing up and going out to eat. She loved being with her friends and family and was very active until the onset of the Covid pandemic.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Robert Perry, Sr.; sister, Carolyn Evans; and brother, Thurmond Evans.

Dorothy leaves to cherish her memory, her sons, Amio Keith Edwards of Winston-Salem, N.C., Robert Perry, Sr. of Greensboro, N.C., Lemuel Perry of California; daughter, Tami Perry-Turner (Ralph) of Winston-Salem, North Carolina; sister-in-love, Larn P. Dillard; devoted nieces, Toya Evans (Anthony), Tami Evans, Crystal Evans-Battle (Orlando), Michon McCorkle, Natasha Lytle; and nephew, Chris Evans; grand-daughters, Keisha Crump, Brittney Perry-Harris (Terrell), Perica Turner; grandson, Chad Turner (Tierra); great-grandchildren, Alaya Crump, Ashlin Perry, Cidney Turner, Makenzie Turner, Milan Harris, Eko Turner, Skye Turner, Zoe Turner; great-great-grand, Yuri Johnson; the Evans, Bailey, and Glenn families; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives.

Order of Service

Processional

Family Visitation

10:30 AM ~ 11:00 AM

Opening Selection

“All Will Be Well”

The Holy Scripture

Airis Thomas

Old Testament - Psalm 23

New Testament - 2 Timothy 4:7-8

Prayer of Comfort

Rev. Dr. Paul A. Lowe
Pastor, Shiloh Baptist Church

Selection

“May the Work I’ve Done Speak for Me”

Keith and Evelyn

Resolutions

Frances Bradley

Eulogy

Rev. Dr. Dennis Bishop
Pastor, First Waughtown Baptist Church

Recessional

Interment

Evergreen Cemetery