

Owner Operator Requirements

Owner Operators have the same company rules and regulations as a regular driver with a few exceptions.

Owner Operators are required to sign a lease agreement with Stockstill Trucking.

Current Registration.

Must Meet DOT standards.

Owner Operators equipment will have an inspection done by Stockstill Trucking before signing.

Owner Operators will have to provide OCC insurance.

Owner Operators will provide own tag and physical damage insurance.

Owner Operators are responsible for all shop bills.

Owner Operators are responsible for damage caused by them.