

THE RIGHT CHOICES FOR TODAY'S CHALLENGES!

The products you select to remove mold either make you money or cost you time and profits. It seems that every contractor is faced with at least two challenges. First is the obvious job of mold removal. Second, how to do the job as efficiently as possible in the face of staffing shortages. Here is a case example of how to overcome both.

Crawl Space BEFORE

Very heavy mold growth, lots of staining.

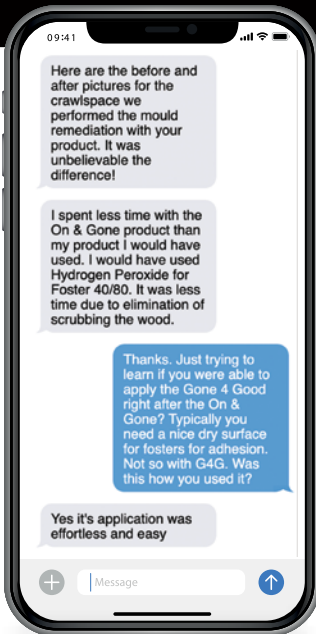

Crawl Space AFTER

The results were "unbelievable" reported the contractor.

As part of a total remediation plan, contractor used OmniPro On & Gone fast mold stain remover to remove these deep, dark stains.
