

GRIEVE NOT FOR ME

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me."
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song,
and the good life I lived while I was strong.

He said, "I see the gate,"
and walked into eternity with the Lord.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation
the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to us during our time of bereavement.

Special thanks to the City of Winston-Salem EMTs and Paramedics.
May God Bless and Keep You!

The Gregg - McDaniel Family

727 North Patterson Avenue
Winston-Salem, North Carolina 27101
336.722.8117
www.clarksbrownandsons.com

Celebrating the Life of

MR. CURTIS LEE GREGG

March 13, 1959 - August 28, 2020

SERVICE

Thursday, September 3, 2020
Clark S. Brown and Sons Funeral Home Chapel
727 N. Patterson Avenue
Winston-Salem, North Carolina
Dr. Keith M. McDaniel, Officiating

THE OBITUARY

Mr. Curtis Lee Gregg was born in Bishopville, SC on March 13, 1959, the son of Dorothy Gregg and Robert Lee Bradley. Later he would also become a loving son of Rev. Joseph McDaniel, Sr. A life-long resident of Winston-Salem, NC, he departed this life unexpectedly on Friday, August 28, 2020.

At an early age, he joined New Hope Baptist Church in Badin, NC, where his father, Reverend Joseph McDaniel was the eminent pastor for 31 years.

A 1977 graduate of Parkland High School, in Winston-Salem, he later attended Forsyth Technical College and graduated with an Associate's degree in Auto Mechanics.

With a background in mechanics and machinery, he was gainfully employed at Pepsi Cola. Earlier at Hanes Hosiery, he worked diligently alongside his beloved older brother, "Ricky," who preceded him in death. Most recently, he was employed at Hilton Hotels and always maintained a strong sense of commitment to his work until his health declined.

An avid newspaper reader, he stayed abreast of current issues and thoroughly enjoyed watching various sporting events on television. Skilled in culinary arts, he loved manning the grill during family outings and barbecues. He will be most remembered for his quiet kindness, mild mannerism, engaging personality, and outpouring generosity. More than anything, he was fervently devoted to his family and friends.

In addition to his parents, Rev. Joseph and Dorothy McDaniel, Curtis was preceded in death by his biological father Robert Lee Bradley; two brothers, Richard Eugene Gregg and Joseph Lewis McDaniel Jr; and his brother-in-law, Grover Shields of Atlanta, GA.

He leaves to cherish his legacy as he cherished them, siblings: Marilynne Gregg (Frank) McLaurin, Linda Kaye McDaniel, Thomas (Toya) McDaniel all of Winston-Salem, NC, Brenda McDaniel Shields of Atlanta, GA, Le'Andre Bradley (Yvette) of Bishopville, SC, Shawn (Alexa) Slater of Camden, SC, Georgianna (William) Hickman of Newark, NJ, and Kenny (Keirsha) Muldrow of Jersey City, NJ; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends.

THE ORDER OF SERVICE

Processional

Prayer

Evangelist Lenore Burgess

Scripture Reading:

Old Testament

Jeremiah 29:11-13 Rev. Lana McCallum

New Testament

Bro. Christopher McLaurin

Solo

Mrs. Amanda Harris-Simmons

Special Remarks

Community

Mr. Calvin Clements

Family

Dr. David Yates

Poem

Ms. Kierra Hargrove
Ms. Delor Williams

Eulogy

Dr. Keith M. McDaniel, Pastor
Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church
Spartanburg, SC

Committal

Closing Prayer

Dr. Keith M. McDaniel

Recessional

---

*"My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Continue family traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.*