Dear Friends and Family,

The Lord sure has been good to us! At the start of the New Year, we began helping out the church full time. It has been such a tremendous learning experience seeing all that goes on in planning and preparing the different events and ministries here. Since we arrived, we have been helping out in the Reformers Unanimous ministry. Another ministry that we've been learning is discipleship. In order to see how they do discipleship here, we have been sitting in with Pastor Ledbetter, his wife, and another couple every Tuesday night.

Another ministry that Pastor Ledbetter has asked me to help in is the weekly soul-winning. A gentleman in the church and I have been working on organizing and getting everything ready for the outreach each week. With the soul-winning visits, we have had some good witnessing opportunities and call backs to follow up on. Our focus has been on the North side of Cork. Jennifer and I are amazed by the number of houses that there are on the North side and it really touched our hearts again about how great of a need there is for the Gospel in Cork. We are praying that fruit will abound from the Gospel seeds that have been planted and watered.

We recently visited our neighbors to give them some cookies that Jennifer had baked. We have wanted to get to know them more and we had such a blessed time when we delivered the cookies. We were able to fellowship with one neighbor and his family for nearly 45 minutes! The visit with our other neighbor was even better! She invited us in for tea and we were talking to both her and her son for nearly two hours! I was able to give my testimony and answer some very good questions she had about the church and what we believed. She is interested in possibly coming, but she works at where the church meets and does not want to go there on her day off! Please pray that the Lord will work on Kathleen's heart and that she will come anyway.

Thank you for praying for Nicola. She has been coming occasionally, but she has been going through some storms with her family. Also, recently, another young lady from Reformers Unanimous accepted Christ and was saved. Please pray for Kelly as she continues to grow in the Lord.

Thank you so much for your faithful prayers and support. They are a great blessing and encouragement to us! We thank the Lord daily for you and for the opportunity to be here in Ireland!

Your Missionaries in Ireland,

Andrew and Jennifer Day
