

Piano man

144

It's nine o'clock on a Saturday, the regular crowd shuffles in there's an old man sitting next to me, makin' love to his tonic and gin

He say, Son can you play me a memory, I'm not really sure how it goes
But it's sad and it's sweet and I knew it complete
When I wore a younger man's clothes

Da da da de de da, da da de de da da da

Sing us a song, you're the piano man, sing us a song tonight well, we're all in the mood for a melody,
and you've got us feelin' alright

Now John at the bar is a friend of mine, he gets me my drinks for free
And he's quick with a joke or to light up your smoke But there's someplace that he'd rather be

He says Bill, I believe this is killing me, As the smile ran away from his face
Well I'm sure that I could be a movie star,
If I could get out of this place

Da da da de de da, da da de de da da da

Now Paul is a real estate novelist, who never had time for a wife And he's talking with Davy who's still in the navy
And probably will be for life

And the waitress is practicing politics, as the businessmen slowly get stoned yes, they're sharing a drink they call loneliness, but it's better than drinking alone

Sing us a song, you're the piano man, sing us a song tonight
well, we're all in the mood for a melody,
and you've got us feelin' alright

It's a pretty good crowd for a Saturday, and the manager gives me a smile
'cause he knows that it's me they've been coming to see to forget about life for awhile.

And the piano sounds like a carnival, and the microphone smells like a beer and they sit at the bar and put bread in my jar and say "Man, what are you doin' here?"

Da da da de de da, da da de de da da da

Sing us a song, you're the piano man, sing us a song tonight
well, we're all in the mood for a melody
and you've got us feelin' alright.
